SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF MARICOPA

SHAWN TYLER FREEMAN,
Petitioner,

vs.

ERIN GERLACH,
Respondent

Case No.: FC2022-094055

EMERGENCY MOTION TO VACATE TEMPORARY ORDERS

Respondent / Mother is requesting this Court Vacate the Temporary Orders issued February 14, 2023.

Ariz. R. Fam. L.P. 85(C)(1)(f) allows this Court to provide relief from Judgment for “any other reason justifying relief” if the moving party can show “extraordinary circumstances of hardship or injustice.” There are extraordinary, exceptional and unique circumstances of hardship and injustice in this case which warrant Mother relief from the Judgment.

This Court also has the authority to set aside a judgment for fraud on the Court under Ariz. R. Civ. P. 60(d)(3).

Furthermore, the Temporary Orders should be vacated because the Judgment is void. The Court failed to hold a proper UCCJEA conference to establish Jurisdiction under A.R.S. 25-1001 to 1067. The Due Process Clause of the Constitution requires an Arizona Judge

1 to hold an evidentiary hearing before ruling on Jurisdiction. “The Court may allow the parties to
2 participate in the communication. If the parties are not able to participate in the communication,
3 they must be given the opportunity to present facts and legal argument before a decision on 4 jurisdiction is made.” A.R.S. 25-1010(B).

6 The Court failed to provide parties with proper notice of the UCCJEA
7 Conference. The parties were only provided with a few hours of notice, which is insufficient
8 time for preparation.

10 Moreover, the limited record for the UCCJEA Conference is not sufficient for 11 effective appellate review. The Court only addressed the Child’s home state, which constitutes 12 merely part of the required findings, and is insufficient for appellate review.

13 Not only did the Court err in failing to make express findings on the record, but it
14 also erred in failing to conduct an evidentiary hearing on the statutory factors.

15 Because the Court did not allow the parties to present evidence pertaining to the 16 statutory factors, the Court could not have based its decision on a proper review of those factors.

18 Mother was ignored when she brought this matter to the Court’s attention,
19 including prior to and at the beginning of the Temporary Orders hearing. The UCCJEA
20 Conference that was held in this case was not only inconsistent with Arizona Law, but a gross
21 violation of all parties’ due process rights. The right to procedural due process is implicated
22 where a constitutionally protected liberty or property interest is concerned. Bd. of Regents of St.
23 Colleges v. Roth, 408 U.S. 564, 570, 92 S.Ct. 2701, 2705 (1972). The crux of procedural due
24 process is the right to notice and an opportunity to be heard at a meaningful time and in a
25 meaningful manner. Fuentes v. Shevin, 407 U.S. 67, 80, 92 S.Ct. 1983, 1994 (1972).

Extraordinary, Exceptional and Unique Circumstances Justifying Relief

- There are issues regarding a Child's Safety, well-being and a Child's Best Interests, which are of primary importance to this Court.
- There is a long history of Father committing Significant Domestic Violence and Child Abuse against Mother and Child.
- Fathers' intentional misrepresentations of "facts", deceitful tactics, fabricated stories and fraudulent evidence presented to this Court, led to the Temporary Orders being issued.
- Due to Fathers Fraud upon the Court, the Temporary Orders in this case were not issued in accordance with Arizona Laws, Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure or the Arizona Constitution.
- Father has been granted sole legal decision-making authority of the Child who is a Victim of Fathers abuse, which places the Child in serious danger with imminent risk of harm.
- Father willfully and purposefully engaged in deceptive conduct to gain an advantage in a Child Custody case.
- Father intentionally misled and defrauded this Court by committing excessive perjury, while purposefully lying by omission. Father fabricated elaborate lies, was dishonest in testimony and submitted fraudulent evidence to three different Courts.
- Father knowingly accused Mother of making false claims regarding Fathers Domestic Violence and Child abuse with knowledge that Mothers claims were actually true.

- Mother and Child victims of Fathers abuse are not lawfully protected due to the Temporary Order placing the Child into the hands of their abuser.
- This Court is ignoring overwhelming evidence of Significant Domestic Violence and abuse which is not consistent with the Child's best interests, the Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure, Arizona Law, The Arizona Constitution or the United States Constitution.
- Father, identifying himself as a Police Officer, lied to and deceived multiple Courts while under oath, in a private Civil matter. Father has also lied to Law Enforcement regarding this case. Father himself has made the circumstances of this case the Interests of Public Justice.
- Father has continued to commit acts of abuse against Mother and Child including but not limited to stalking, harassment, intimidation, threatening, interstate Domestic Violence, and dissuasion of a Victim, Witness or Party to a Case. Father committed additional acts of abuse prior to AND after the issuance of Temporary Orders, while the parties are actively litigating this case.
- This Court is willfully Depriving Mother and Child of Rights and Privileges protected by the Constitution and Laws of the United States.
- Mother cannot fairly or adequately litigate this case due to Fathers dishonest Unjustifiable conduct.

1 A Party commits fraud upon the Court by concealing material facts and
2 suppressing the truth with the intention of misleading the Court. Father has committed fraud
3 upon the Court. Father has been exceptionally dishonest with this Court in his filings,
4 declarations and testimony with the intent to deceive the Court. An act of fraud upon the court
5 “harms the integrity of the judicial process and is a wrong against the institutions set up to 6 protect and safeguard the public.” (Ragone V. Correia, 236 Ariz. 43, 48 (Ct. App. 2014)

8 This is not a case involving oversight, excusable mistakes or lapses in memory.
9 This is a case where Father willfully and repeatedly committed perjury. Father was willing and 10 cognizant of fabricating and telling his deceitful lies.

12 The outcome of this case has been considerably impacted by Father’s
13 intentionally dishonest statements Father continues presenting to this Court.

15 Fathers’ habitual material misrepresentations of facts are part of a scheme Father
16 devised to paint an inaccurate picture of himself with this Court, while unfairly and 17 inappropriately damaging Mother’s credibility and reputation.

18 FATHER’S DECEITFUL CONDUCT HAS CAUSED THIS COURT TO IGNORE
19 SUBSTANTIAL EVIDENCE OF SIGNIFICANT DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND CHILD
20 ABUSE.

21 Father has blamed his victims for their own abuse and distracted the Court from 22 significant safety concerns for Mother and Child. Because of Fathers dishonesty in this Court, 23 the California Courts and multiple Law Enforcement agencies, Mother and Child have been

26 Father has admitted to committing Domestic Violence in his filings with this Court. The 27 Court itself acknowledged there was Domestic Violence in this case when the Court allowed the 28

1 parties to bypass the requirement of mediation due to this case involving Domestic Violence.

2 Yet, Domestic Violence or Abuse is not mentioned anywhere in the Temporary Orders.

3 This Court has ignored evidence of Significant Domestic Violence submitted to the Court and 4 failed to make a finding of Domestic Violence on the record.

6 There are significant laws in the State of Arizona that protect victims of Domestic 7 Violence and Child Abuse. “[i]f the Court determines that a parent..has committed an act of 8 domestic violence against the other parent, there is a rebuttable presumption that an award of 9 sole or joint legal decision-making to the parent who committed an act of domestic violence is 10 contrary to the child’s best interests. A.R.S. 25-403.03(D) Furthermore, Courts are directed to 11 consider the safety and well-being of the child and the victim of domestic violence of primary
12 importance. A.R.S. 25-403.03(B) (emphases added); see also Hays vs Gama, 205 Ariz 99, 102,
13 Paragraph 19 (2003). In addition, where there is domestic violence, there is a rebuttable 14 presumption against the perpetrator that parenting time will endanger the child and/or 15 significantly impair the child’s emotional development. A.R.S. 25-403.03(F). Moreover, “[i]n 16 determining whether an absence or relocation of a parent shall be weighed against that parent in 17 determining legal decision-making or parenting time, the Court may consider whether the 18 absence or relocation was caused by an act of Domestic Violence by the other parent.” A.R.S.
19 25-403.03(I) Due to Fathers significant misrepresentations in his filings and testimony, none
20 of these statutes were considered when this Court issued the Temporary Orders. The Court
21 failed to make any findings on the record regarding the Significant Domestic Violence Mother
22 presented to the Court. Since the Temporary Orders hearing Mother and Mother’s former 23 Counsel have provided the Court with substantial evidence of Significant Domestic Violence
24 which the Court has disregarded.
27
28

2 SIGNIFICANTLY VIOLATE MOTHER AND CHILD’S CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

6 Additionally, Fathers dishonesty and overly exaggerated claims in his filings have 7 led to multiple incidents where this Court violated Mother’s right to due process. Father has 8 initiated several ex-parte actions against Mother, in multiple Courts. Father purposefully
9 fabricates exaggerated emergencies in his filings so that he can convince the Court to take the 10 action he desires, without affording Mother the appropriate due process. Father knowingly makes 11 embellished and false claims in his EXPEDITED and EMERGENCY motions that Father knows
12 to be untrue or impossible. Father manipulates the Court with his one-sided, dishonest statements
13 to give his Petitions and Motions a sense of urgency with the Court so that the Court will give 14 Father what he wants without affording Mother an opportunity to defend herself.

17 One of the examples of Fathers exaggerated Emergencies is when Father told this 18 Court multiple times that Mother was going to flee the Country with the Child. That is a serious, 19 false accusation to make against Mother. Father’s claim was not genuine and held no weight.
20 Fathers’ false accusation was intended to create the appearance of an Emergency with the Court,
21 understandably impacting the Court’s ruling. Mother and the Child do not have passports.
22 Mother does not have the financial resources to leave the Country, nor does she have any ties
23 outside of the Country. Mother has never even hinted at a desire to travel outside of the Country
24 with the Child. Father knew those facts at the time he submitted those exaggerated statements to 25 this Court. Father is the only party to this case with a passport. If Father was genuinely 26 concerned that Mother was going to leave the Country, Father could have requested all parties

1 relinquish their passports to the Court. Instead of resolving issues in a reasonable manner, Father
2 goes to the extreme. Fathers' unnecessary, extreme actions have caused irreparable damage. That
3 is only one example of many ridiculous exaggerations Father has made to the Court.

5 Father's initial filings with this Court are packed with dishonest statements which
6 significantly impacted this case. Fathers requested an EXPEDITED hearing right off the bat
7 because of urgencies that were not true. Father fabricated claims and evidence while significantly
8 exaggerating the parties' situation so that this case could unfairly cut in front of all the other
9 cases waiting to be heard.

12 Understandably, Fathers inappropriate actions have put Mother in an 13 unreasonably burdensome position while she is trying to present and defend her case. It's 14 difficult enough being self-represented, opposing an experienced Family Law Attorney. Father
15 purposefully makes it exponentially more challenging for Mother to represent herself in this 16 case. After Father obtains a Court Order from an "Emergency" or Ex-Parte Petition that was not 17 filed in good faith, Mother cannot do anything to resolve the outcome.

19 Due to Father's significant misrepresentations, contradictory statements and 20 inconsistencies between Courts and Law Enforcement, Mother has been unable to adequately
21 defend herself or present her case. Mother cannot gather evidence or properly prepare for 22 litigation because she can't keep up with Fathers perpetually changing stories and contradictory
23 statements.
24

25 Mother believes she could adequately, effectively represent herself if Father was 26 playing by the rules or at least being honest with the Court. Father's unethical conduct makes it
27 tremendously complicated for Mother to defend herself against Father's false allegations. Mother
28

1 is doing everything in her power to keep herself and their Child safe from the continued abuse
2 that this Court is enabling Father to commit.

3 Fathers' preposterous behavior has placed an unnecessary burden on Mother,
4 who is unsuccessfully trying to represent herself in this case. Mother isn't representing herself
5 because she wants to or thinks she is capable. Mother doesn't even understand the majority of 6 what is happening in this case. Mother is representing herself because financially it's in the best
7 interests of the Child. Mother believes taking food out of the Child's mouth to pay for a lawyer
8 to litigate this case would be irresponsible and inconsistent with the Child's best interests. If 9 Father was being honest and following the rules, neither party would need an attorney. Father
10 has intentionally made this case difficult for Mother to litigate on her own. Between three Courts
11 and Law Enforcement actions, Father has never told a consistent story. How can Mother
12 adequately prepare for Court, when Fathers claims, and ever-changing stories continue evolving 13 over time?

15 Father hasn't made any attempts since July of 2022 to help Mother financially
16 support the parties' Child, which is consistent with Fathers conduct during the parties'
17 relationship. Mother has not only provided everything for the Child since July of 2022, but 18 Mother has also suffered the added expenses of being forced to move and implementing security
19 measures when Father's illegal behavior placed Mother, the Child, and Mothers family's safety
20 in jeopardy. Father didn't make a single attempt to help Mother with the Child for the 7 months
21 leading up to the Temporary Orders being issued. During those months Father was spending his 22 money on vacations in Colorado, Hawaii, Mexico and California on multiple occasions. Father
23 may have also travelled to other places while refusing to help financially support the parties'
24 Child. When Mother left Arizona, Father had well over $200,000 in the bank from the sale of the
26
27
28

1 parties home. Mother left everything behind in Arizona for Father to keep even though Mother
2 purchased everything in the parties home. There is a clear financial disparity between the parties
3 that Father is using to his advantage in this case.

6 Father has purposefully created an incomplete record with this Court. Father intentionally
7 omitted records including parts of minute orders, pleadings and declarations Father filed in the 8 parties DVRO cases in California. After a thorough review of the Court's record, Mother found
9 that Father only provided partial documents to the Arizona Court from the parties' cases in 10 California. Father only disclosed documents to the Arizona Court that were favorable to him.
12 Father intentionally excluded his own filings and Declarations from the parties' cases in 13 California from the Maricopa County, AZ Court record. Father does not want the Arizona
14 Court to see the evidence depicting Father's contradictory versions of events he told other 15 Courts and Law Enforcement.

17 Father mentions Police Reports throughout his filings and declarations to enhance or 18 attempt to legitimize the stories he tells. Father intentionally fails to attach copies of the actual 19 reports. Upon obtaining several of these Police reports, Mother could see why Father doesn't 20 attach the Police Reports to his filings. Father tells Law Enforcement different stories than he 21 tells this Court. Father is concealing the actual reports because Father doesn't want his 22 inconsistent statements to be discovered.
23
25
26
27
28

1 There is another unique element Father introduced into this case. Father using his
2 title as a Law Enforcement Officer for varying reasons in a private Civil proceeding, makes this
3 case one that carries public interests of Justice.

4 Father is consistently identifying himself as a Police Officer in this Domestic
5 Relations case. Aside from Father's financial affidavit, Fathers profession as a Law Enforcement
6 Officer should be irrelevant to this case. Yet, Mother can barely locate a filing, declaration or 7 testimony where Father does not identify as a Police Officer or cite his Law Enforcement
8 training. In this Court, Father has even cited his Law Enforcement training as an excuse for 9 Father committing years of Significant Domestic Violence.

10 Father inappropriately identifies himself as a Police Officer instead of a Father in 11 Court because it gives him an enhanced perception of credibility.

12 Father inappropriately wore his Mesa Police SWAT uniform to Court, in front of 13 The Honorable Judge Jackson. Father did this intentionally because Father knew The Honorable
14 Judge Jackson's husband is also in Law Enforcement. Fathers' calculated actions create a 15 perceived view of bias, if not an actual bias.

16 As an Officer of the Court, Father should especially be held accountable for 17 knowingly committing fraud upon this Court. Father has lied in this private civil action
18 beginning with Father's filings that initiated this case. Does Father also lie while testifying in 19 criminal cases? That itself is a unique circumstance to this case that should allow the Court to 20 proceed with this matter in the public interests of Justice.

21 A person identifying themselves to this Court, under oath, as a Police Officer
22 shall not commit a single act of perjury. This motion will provide evidence of several instances
25
26
27

1 of perjury, intentional misrepresentations, deceitful tactics and fraud upon the Court committed
2 by Father. Mother should be granted relief from this Judgment in the interest of Justice.

5 Father concealing his contradictory declarations between Courts and Law Enforcement
6 showcases his intent to commit fraud upon this Court. Not only did Father intentionally file false
7 statements with the Maricopa County Superior Court, but Father also filed significant 8 misrepresentations in the Riverside County, CA Court, the Los Angeles County, CA Court, and 9 multiple Law Enforcement agencies including his own employer the Mesa Police Department.

11 Lying during a proceeding where Legal Decision-making and Parenting time is 12 determined should cause the untruthful party to lose Legal decision-making authority and 13 Parenting time of the Child. If this Court can't trust Father to be truthful, why would the Court
14 risk the safety of the Child with that parent? Father falsified testimony, declarations and filings
15 with the sole purpose of influencing the legal decision-making and parenting time outcome.
17 Father has not exercised good decision making in the best interests of the Child.

18 Additionally, this unconscionable case of excessive perjury and fraud upon the 19 Court should be referred to the Maricopa County District Attorney for prosecution of perjury
20 charges. Father should be held accountable for his continued abuse of Mother and Child. Father
21 committing perjury in this case has caused irreparable damage while further victimizing Mother
22 and Child.

24 The following Statement of Facts only describes a small handful of Fathers intentional
25 misrepresentations, deceitful tactics and boldly fabricated lies Father presented to multiple 26 Courts and Law Enforcement regarding this case. There are innumerable documented instances
27
28 in addition to the few instances presented in this Motion.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On February 17, 2023, Father filed an EMERGENCY Petition to Enforce the Child Custody Determination in Maricopa County, AZ. In his Petition, Father requested this Court issue a Warrant to take Physical Custody of the Child (with permission to enter private property), to hold Mother in Contempt, to order Mother to pay attorney's fees, to order Mother to pay Fathers travel expenses, and more.

In this Motion, Father claims that he travelled to California from Arizona on February 14th and attempted to retrieve the Child on February 14th, 15th, and 16th with assistance from Fathers Dad. See Exhibit 1.

Father signed the Petition requesting this Court Enforce the Child Custody Determination and hold Mother in Contempt with sanctions, etc. on an EMERGENCY basis less than 2 days after this Court issued the Temporary Orders. In Fathers Petition, he admits that Mother had not been served with the Temporary Orders and Mother had no knowledge of Temporary Orders being issued at that time. Father requested this Court Enforce the Order and find Mother in Contempt on an ex-parte basis anyway. Father's attorney knows the first requirement for the Court to hold a party in Contempt is that the party must have knowledge of and been served with the original order. It's unclear why Father's attorney would think it's appropriate to aggressively request a Court hold a party in Contempt, while simultaneously admitting to knowing the contemptuous party was not served with the original order. In Fathers Motion, Father's attorney boldly divulged her convoluted plan to surprise Mother with the Temporary Order. There is no Rule or Law that gives Father's attorney the authority to intentionally violate Mothers rights to due process. It is the Courts responsibility to serve Mother with the Orders it makes. It is not

1 opposing Counsel's responsibility to serve Mother with the Court's Orders. This only happened
2 because Father's attorney aggressively takes advantage of Mother being self-represented.
3 Father's attorney would have never behaved in that manner if Mother had an attorney
4 representing her. Whether Self Represented or Attorney represented, every party to a Child
5 Custody case has the same Constitutional Rights that should not be violated.

7 Father Petitioned this Court requesting the Court take the most intrusive action possible,
8 under false pretenses. Father did not request a Court date for Mother to address these 9 accusations. Father filed his Petition Ex-Parte because most of his statements in his Petition were 10 dramatically exaggerated and untrue. Father's deceptive statements in his request convinced this 11 Court of a non-existent emergency which violated Mothers due process rights again. Among 12 other laws, rules and procedures Father failed to follow when filing this Motion, Father also 13 omitted the status of the proceedings relating to Domestic Violence and Protective orders the 14 parties were actively involved in on the date of Fathers filing. Father should have informed the 15 Court of those proceedings per A.R.S. 25-1058 (3).

18 Additionally, the Temporary Order specifically states that Mother returns the Child to 19 Arizona. The Temporary Order does not instruct Father or anyone else to retrieve the Child.
20 Father doesn't follow the Temporary Order himself. Father interprets the Court's Order however 21 he sees fit and then tells the Court that Mother is disobeying HIS interpretation of the Orders, not 22 the actual Courts orders. At the time Father filed his Petition for Emergency Enforcement of the 23 Child Custody Determination, Father made claims stating Mother was violating certain parts of 24 the Temporary Order that weren't even in the Court Order. Father himself was disobeying the 25 Order when he filed his Petition to Enforce. The Court cannot hold Mother in Contempt for not 26 following FATHER's Orders. That is why Father filed his Petition on an Ex-Parte basis. Father
27

1 never requested a Court date to hold Mother in Contempt. Father did not want Mother to have an
2 opportunity to show the Court that Fathers Petition was not only inconsistent with the laws, rules
3 and procedures of the Court but also heavily filled with lies. Father did not file his Motion to 4 Enforce or for Contempt in good faith.

7 On May 8, 2023, Father filed a response to Mothers DVRO Petition in Los Angeles, CA.
8 Father submitted a signed Declaration under the penalty of Perjury. Father states that on 9 February 15, 2023, Father called the Murrieta Police Department on the telephone to inform 10 them of the Temporary Orders issued in this case. Father claims the Murrieta Police called 11 Father back over the telephone. See Exhibit 2.
12

13 Father does not say anything about travelling to California and does not mention any 14 contact with the Murrieta Police Department on the 14th or 16th of February as he claimed in his 15 Emergency Petition filed in the Maricopa County Case. There is a drastic difference between 16 Fathers claims in Exhibit 1 and Exhibit 2.

18 Father requested the Arizona Court issue Orders requiring Mother to pay Fathers travel
19 costs; therefore, Father didn't simply forget if he travelled to California for 3 days or not.

20 Which Court is Father lying under oath to? These are two different stories Father is 21 telling two different Courts about the same exact event in declarations Father signed under oath.

24 On February 10, 2023, Father filed a Response to Mother's Request for a DVRO in 25 Riverside County, CA. In Fathers response, he requests the Court order joint / shared custody of 26 the Child between Father and Mother. See Exhibit 3.

21 Father would not have requested the parties share joint custody of the Child, if Father
22 believed the Child to be in danger with Mother. At this time, Father also agreed to Mother and 23 Child staying in California.
25
26
27
28

1 Unfortunately, Father's behavior didn't escalate over time to the point of fabricating false
2 statements and submitting fraudulent evidence to this Court. The intentional, deceitful
3 misrepresentations in Fathers filings began with Father's initial Petition he filed in this 4 case.

7 On August 31, 2022, Father obtained an Order of Protection against Mother in Maricopa
8 County, AZ. Father put Mother's Home address as her parents address in Murrieta, CA. See
9 Exhibit 4.

11 Father also filed a false Police Report with the Gilbert Police Department and provided
12 Gilbert PD with the same address where Mother was living with the Child in Murrieta, CA.

14 On September 7, 2022, Father filed a Petition in Maricopa County Superior Court to 15 Establish Paternity, legal decision making, Parenting Time, and Child Support. In the Petition
16 Father claims Mother's address is "unknown," even though Father knew where Mother and the 17 Child were. Father makes multiple statements insinuating he doesn't know where Mother was 18 with the Child.

20 Conveniently, Father omits the fact he witnessed Mother's parents travel to Arizona,
21 helping Mother and Child move to California. Father argued with Mother during that time
22 because Mother sent the Child to stay in a hotel with her Maternal Grandmother in Gilbert, 23 Arizona while Mother packed the Child's belongings in front of Father. Mother didn't want the 24 Child to witness or be a victim to more of Father's angry outbursts.
25

26 Additionally, Father is in possession of text messages from August of 2022 between the 27 parties where Mother and Father discuss Father disposing of the property Mother left behind in 28

1 Arizona. (The month prior to Father filing the Paternity case in this Court) Mother had purchased
2 nearly everything in the parties shared home. Mother had to leave their belongings behind when
3 Father unexpectedly kicked Mother and the Child out again.

4 Father had been to Maternal Grandparents home in Murrieta, CA multiple times.

6 Conveniently, Father had the correct address for Mother and Child 7 days prior 7 when he filed a false Police Report with the Gilbert Police Department and obtained an 8 Order of Protection against Mother in the Maricopa County Superior Court. Fathers'
9 deceitful claim of Mother and Child's location "unknown" was Father's first calculated
10 statement intended to deceive this Court.

13 On Page 3, Paragraph 18, Father claims he used his Law Enforcement training to 14 "deescalate" heated arguments between the parties. See Exhibit 5.

15 Why would Father need to physically assist Mother during an "argument?" It is never 16 appropriate for a verbal disagreement to be made physical by Father, regardless of his training.
17 Father was not acting in an official capacity as a Police Officer in his home with his family.
18 Regardless of Fathers profession, Father physically assaulting Mother is never acceptable.
19 Especially because Father always assaulted Mother in front of or along with the Parties
20 minor Child.
21

22 Furthermore, the Pinal County Sheriff's Department has narrated several videos which 23 describe Mother and Child locked in the bathroom during some of those heated "arguments."
24 How can Mother be instigating a high conflict argument while locked in the bathroom away
25 from Father?
26
28

1 In several of the videos narrated by the Pinal County Sheriff's Department, Father can be
2 heard demolishing the home, screaming at Mother and Child, etc. Although Father and Child's 3 names are redacted, you can tell by the length of the redaction and the context which party each
4 redaction is referring to. See Exhibit 6

6 This Police Report was not available when the parties had their Temporary Orders
7 hearing, Mother could not present it as evidence. Nevertheless, this Court can see that father's 8 excuses regarding the Significant Domestic Violence in his initial filings were untrue.

9 It's difficult to believe that Mother and Child locked in the bathroom while Father was 10 screaming at Mother to kill herself and Father screaming "fuck you for ever giving birth to 11 her" speaking of their Child, in front of the Child, is a technique of de-escalation that any Law
12 Enforcement agency teaches or condones.

14 Additionally, photos of injuries including black eyes and significant bruising to arms,
15 ribs and back do not happen during "de-escalation" techniques. See Exhibit 7.

17 There are dozens of additional photos of injuries.

18 There was never a video of Father trying to de-escalate the situation by "physically
19 assisting" Mother so that he could leave the residence as Father claims.

20 In Fact, there are videos demonstrating the opposite, where Father is following Mother
21 and Child out the front door intimidating them as they are trying to escape Father's abuse. You
22 can see Mother struggling to open the front door while holding the baby, frantically screaming
23 for help while Father continues advancing towards them. Mother is heard telling Father to get
24 away from them while she is screaming for help. Father violently pulled Mother to the ground
25 while Mother was holding the child. The child fell and hit her head on the hard tile floor as a 26 result of Father's violent act. Father had no regard for the Child's safety as he assaulted Mother,
27

1 while Mother was holding the Child. Similar events happened many times, always involving or
2 in front of the parties' Child.

3 There are also videos of Father throwing food at Mother and Child. Father admitted on 4 video that Mother was "annoying him," that's why Father threw a hot plate of food at Mother
5 and baby. This happened because Mother was trying to discuss the Child's sickness with Father,
6 but Father didn't care. Father was not home often enough to know the Child was sick. Father
7 refused to help with the sick Child. Instead, Father threw a hot plate of food including a hot
8 sausage sandwich on a bun with condiments on Mother and Child.

10 There are photos of Mother and Baby covered in food with red marks on the Child from 11 the hot food hitting the Child and a scratch on her face from the incident. See Exhibit 8
12

13 Mother documented the incident and then cleaned up the Child and Father's mess.
14

15 In this same filing with the Maricopa County Court, Father speaks of his imaginary
16 concern for Mothers medical issues. Father didn't care about Mothers medical condition when 17 the parties' lived together. Father still left the Child with Mother alone, all day, every day while 18 Mother had the same medical condition. Father can't now reasonably claim that Mother is 19 incapable of taking care of the Child, using Mothers health condition as a reason. Father had no
20 issue with Mother caring for the parties' Child all day, every day since birth. Father cannot 21 retroactively complain about it now pretending Mothers medical condition affects her ability to 22 be a fit and proper parent. Furthermore, Fathers omits the fact that Father's abuse was the biggest 23 hinderance in Mothers medical care when the parties were together.

26 There is a video where Mother is understandably upset telling Father how the marks and 27 bruises Father is leaving on her body are causing complications with Mother's medical treatment
28

1 for her condition because Mother's medical providers were concerned about her injuries. Father
2 proceeds to make fun of Mother on camera as Mother is very upset about her medical treatment
3 being hindered because of the injuries Father is leaving on her body. Instead of Father
4 apologizing or ceasing his abuse, Father laughs at Mother and makes inappropriate gestures
5 while childishly rolling his eyes at Mother.

7 Mother was understandably upset about her medical care being affected because of the 8 injuries to her body, caused by Father. Father's reaction demonstrates that Father does not care or 9 feel any remorse or guilt for the excessive abuse he put Mother and Child through.
10

11 There are multiple other videos where Mother is talking to Father about the abuse and 12 injuries, she suffered from Father's violent behavior. Father cannot pretend he didn't know
13 Mother was being abused when Mother brought the abuse, violence, anger management, and 14 substance abuse issues up to Father's attention on multiple occasions throughout the parties'
15 relationship. Father cannot reasonably tell this Court that he wasn't abusing Mother and Child
16 when Mother brought it to Father's attention many times over the years while the parties were 17 living together. Father manipulated this Court into believing that Mother's accusations of 18 Domestic Violence and Abuse were only made because of this Domestic Relations case. That is 19 not accurate or true. In fact, Mother's accusations against Father are not new; Mother has been 20 vocal throughout the parties' relationship about the abuse and Domestic Violence. Mother and 21 Father even discussed Father's mental health counseling he was participating in, and Father's 22 childhood treatment Father received for his anger management issues.

25 Father would often go into violent fits of rage, waking up the following morning
26 pretending like nothing happened. Father also had violent nightmares where he abused Mother in 27 his sleep. This resulted in Mother sleeping out of her own bed most nights.
28

1 Mother was unsure if Father was truly blacking out like Father claimed or if he was lying
2 because he didn't want to take accountability for the abuse he was inflicting upon his own
3 family. Mother began telling Father about the injuries, showing Father videos of his angry
4 outbursts, etc.

6 There are also videos of Mother pleading with Father to please stop yelling at her while
7 Mother is caring for their child in the middle of the night.

8 That is not a case of Mother instigating high conflict arguments as Father claimed in 9 another manipulative misrepresentation of facts that Father told this Court. This is a case of 10 victim blaming where Father irresponsibly refuses to take accountability for years of abusing 11 Mother and Child. Father didn't care that he was frightening, violent or abusive in front of and 12 towards the parties' Child since birth.

14 Fathers' attorney Caitlin Andrade has been provided with copies of these videos. Many 15 of these videos were provided to her prior to the Temporary Orders hearing. Yet, Father still 16 testifies to his belief that he was using his Police training to "de-escalate" arguments as his 17 defense to committing Significant Domestic Violence hundreds of times. Father is continuing to 18 testify in support of his delusions, which are contrary to overwhelming evidence of Domestic 19 Violence and abuse, is terrifying.

21 Father blaming Mother or anyone else for his violent, abusive behavior is not a trait of a
22 fit and proper parent. It's proof that Father should not be around any Child until Father receives a 23 significant amount of serious mental health intervention.

25 Fathers' refusal to take any accountability for his anger issues and abusive behaviors are 26 a demonstration of Fathers capability and willingness to not only physically abuse the Child, but
28

1 also psychologically and emotionally abuse the Child and then blame the Child for her own
2 abuse.

3 Due to Father misleading this Court, Mothers worse fears of herself and the Child
4 not being protected from further abuse have come true. That fear is one of the reasons that kept
5 Mother and the Child stuck in an unhealthy, abusive situation with Father for so long.

7 Father would tell Mother constantly that nobody was going to believe Mother if
8 she attempted to report Domestic Violence or abuse because of Father's profession as a Police
9 Officer. Father was correct because nobody will protect Mother and Child due to Fathers
10 position as a Police Officer.

12 FATHERS LYING STATEMENTS TO THIS COURT HAVE OBSTRUCTED MOTHER
13 AND CHILD FROM GETTING LAWFUL PROTECTION AGAINST THEIR ABUSER.

14 The Post Separation abuse from Father has been a nightmare for Mother, the 15 Child and Mother's family. Mother and her family live in crippling fear of Father every day.
16 Father has committed many acts of intimidation, threatening, etc. since Mother and Child moved
17 to California. Father has hacked into electronic devices, email accounts and other personal 18 accounts. Father has had private investigators and other associates stalk Mother since Fall of 19 2022. Father has even driven by Mother's parent's home threatening to burn the house down
20 while Mother and the Child were inside. Father especially escalates his terrifying behavior right
21 before the parties have any type of Court proceeding. Father does this to intimidate Mother,
22 achieving his goal of keeping Mother afraid of Father while maintaining control over Mother.
23 Furthermore, how does Father and this Court not see that Father's behavior is also affecting the 24 Child and NOT in the Child's Best Interests?
25
27
28

1 Father cannot rationally blame his violent actions on Mother by claiming that she 2 instigated her own abuse. Blaming a victim of Domestic Violence for their own abuse is
3 considered another act of Domestic Violence. Under no circumstances should a grown adult
4 parent participate in behavior such as throwing a plate of hot food at a Child and her Mother.
5 Father was proud enough of his abusive actions towards Mother and Child that he admitted it on 6 camera, while aggressively in Mother and Child's face.

8 Father's victim blaming mentality and refusal to accept responsibility for his own
9 violent behavior, anger management issues and substance abuse, should cause this Court to have 10 significant concerns for Father's mental health as well as the safety and wellbeing for any Child
11 in Father's care.
12

13 Mother wouldn't leave the Child alone with Father when the parties were together
14 because Father was not a safe or fit parent. On the few occasions Mother left the Child alone
15 with Father, Mother came home to Father feeding the Child beer See Exhibit 9 and allowing the 16 Child to play with ammunition while loaded, unsecured firearms were in the Child's reach. See
17 Exhibit 10

19 Father put the Child in his work vehicle, which was filled with loaded weapons,
20 knives, taser, guns, OC spray, etc. all within the Child's reach while Father was driving. This
21 vehicle was a common minivan with the middle row of seats removed. The Child sat in the rear
22 seats, far out of Fathers reach with an assortment of dangerous weapons on the floor within the 23 Child's reach. Father placed the child in this vehicle without a child safety seat when the Child
24 was barely 4 years old. This was not for an emergency; it was to take the Child to the trampoline
25 park. It's another demonstration of Fathers irresponsible lack of regard for anyone's safety. As a 26 Police Officer, Father cannot claim ignorance when he knowingly endangered the Child during

1 these incidents. Not only was this incident dangerous for the Child but it was also dangerous for
2 the general public. God forbid the Child had picked up one of the weapons while Father was 3 driving, or Father was in an accident while the small child was in the vehicle without a safety 4 seat.

6 On September 7, 2022, (the same day as Fathers initial filing with this Court)
7 Father told a Gilbert Police Detective that Mother and Child MOVED to California. Father also 8 told the Gilbert Detectives that Mother and Child MOVED Prior to Father filing his Case in 9 Maricopa County, AZ. See Exhibit 11.

11 Father told this Court that Mother left with the parties' Child under false pretenses
12 and that Father didn't know Mothers intention was to move with the Child to California. Father
13 also told this Court that he wanted the Child returned to Arizona.

14 If Father genuinely believed that Mother took the Child to California and Father
15 wanted the Child returned to Arizona, Father would have told the Police Detective on that day.

17 Father literally told the Police that Mother and Child MOVED to California on 18 the same day that Father wrote in a Petition to this Court that Father wanted the Child returned to 19 Arizona because Father did not know Mothers intent was to move to California. Father tells 20 whatever story benefits him at the time.

22 Additionally, Father would not have provided the Gilbert Police Department and 23 the Maricopa County Superior Court (when Father filed his order of Protection on August, 31)
24 with Mothers HOME address in Murrieta, CA, if Father believed that Mother was returning to 25 Arizona.

27 Father's claims about Mother and Child moving to California change dependent
28 upon what story will support Fathers objective at the time or who Father is speaking to. In this

1 instance, Father couldn't even keep the same story, on the same day. Father told the Gilbert
2 Police Mother and Child MOVED and then told this Court a different story to gain an advantage
3 in this case.

5 On Page 5, paragraph 27, Father makes claims about Mother exposing his 6 domestic abuse on social media. See Exhibit 12.

7 Gilbert Police Department closed their investigation as No Prosecution, NO PC
8 for arrest. The Detective called Father and told Father this, which Father has intentionally 9 omitted from his testimony with this Court. See Exhibit 13.

11 Father also claims to this Gilbert Police Detective that Father was attempting to 12 have Mother served with his Order of Protection by the Riverside County Sheriff's Department.
13 See Exhibit 14

14 The Riverside County Sheriff's Department has no record of Father attempting to 15 serve Mother other than in February of 2023. Mother could not obtain a record from the 16 Riverside County Sheriff's Department of Fathers claims of attempted service because those 17 records do not exist, it never happened.

19 Father did not attempt to serve Mother with the Order of Protection through the 20 Riverside County Sheriff's Department until February of 2023. (Father obtained the Order of 21 Protection in August of 2022) Mother accepted service from the Riverside County Sheriff's 22 Department on the first attempt, at the address where Father knew Mother and Child lived.

24 Moreover, Father claimed to this Gilbert Police Detective that Father sent the 25 Riverside County Deputies to serve Mother at Mothers parents' home in Murrieta, CA. Although 26 Father was lying to the detective about the attempted service, Father certainly knew the correct
27 address where Mother and Child were. In Fathers Filing with the Arizona Court on the same
28

1 day, Father continues with his insinuations of not knowing where Mother is. Father tells the
2 Court that Mothers location is “unknown” and provides the Court with Mothers last known
3 address in Gilbert Arizona. Father gave Mothers proper HOME address in Murrieta, CA to the 4 Gilbert Police Department and the Maricopa County Superior Court for his Restraining Order
5 but then told the Maricopa County Family Court in his filings that Mothers location was 6 “unknown,” and Mothers last known address was in Gilbert, AZ. Father made these conflicting
7 statements on the same day. Father knew where Mother and the Child were, when it was 8 convenient for him, or when it fit his ever-changing narrative.

11 Father lying about actively attempting to serve Mother with his Restraining Order
12 to the Gilbert Police Detective demonstrates Fathers willingness to lie to Law Enforcement
13 regarding Mother and Child. This is terrifying for Mother because Father has threatened Mother
14 with having her falsely arrested for years if Mother left. Unfortunately, because Father is in Law
15 Enforcement, other Law Enforcement agencies give Father Professional Courtesy and believe
16 what Father says to be true, when clearly, they shouldn’t. Father has abused his title and position
17 as a Police Officer throughout this case.

20 On page 6, Paragraph 29, Father makes multiple claims that Mother broke 21 personal property. See Exhibit 15.
22

23 The overwhelming amount of evidence proves it was Father who destroyed the 24 personal property of Mother and Child. Pinal County Police Reports show that Father was the 25 one destroying personal property on multiple occasions. See Exhibit 16.
26
28

1 Father not only destroyed Mothers personal belongings but also their Childs.
2 There is a video and photos that show baby clothing, baby bottles, baby toys, diapers, etc. along
3 with Mother's property on the filthy garage floor and in the garbage can. See Exhibit 17.

5 During one of the occasions when Father destroyed personal property, Father
6 screams at Mother and Child on video to "get the fuck out" in a fit of rage. Father then tells 7 Mother that She and the Child never lived there, that they just "rested their heads" in Father's 8 home. This happened more than once, always in front of the parties' Child. Father would abuse
9 Mother and Child by unexpectedly kicking them out when he was drunk or angry. Father would
10 then expect to control where Mother and Child were allowed to go after they were unexpectedly
11 kicked out. This was one of the ways Father maintained control over Mother.

14 On page 6, Paragraph 29 (G) Father claims that Mother strangled him while the 15 parties were visiting Mothers family in California. See Exhibit 18. That did not happen.
16

17 The Riverside County Sheriff Report states there were no marks on Father's neck.
18 See Exhibit 19.

19 Mother recently provided actual videos of the incident to the Riverside County
20 Sheriff Department so that a supplemental report can be written. Mother didn't previously 21 provide the videos.

23 Mother's videos of this incident show her standing at a minimum of 8 feet away
24 from Father. Mother and her family were trying to convince Father to let the Child leave the 25 room to remove the Child from a volatile situation. Mother's parents kindly asked Father to leave
26 their home multiple times after Father assaulted Mother in front of Mother's family and the

1 parties' Child. Father refused to leave on his own. Mother's parents eventually had to call 911 to 2 have Father removed. There is a transcript from the 911 call. See Exhibit 20

3 Father held the Child hostage in a bedroom until Police arrived to take Father out
4 of the home. Father attempted to take the Child with him, Police determined it was better for the 5 Child to stay with Mother in California. The Riverside County Sheriff Deputy drove Father to a 6 café where Father took an uber to the airport, returning to Arizona.

8 Father tells a different story of the incident under oath in his declaration to the 9 Court in Riverside County California. Father claims that he asked Mothers parents to call 911 on 10 Mother and that mother attacked him. Father claims that deputies observed marks on his neck
11 See Exhibit 21.

13 However, the Police report clearly states that Deputies observed no marks on
14 Fathers neck. Multiple witnesses heard Father yell for Mother to stop choking him while Father
15 was in the bedroom, and they could visibly see Mother standing in the open hallway, nowhere
16 near Father. Father had the Child alone in the bedroom while he was yelling these accusations
17 about Mother. Father was not aware that Mothers entire family was also standing in the hallway
18 and could see where Mother was standing. Fathers' behavior caused everyone in the home to be 19 exponentially more concerned for Fathers mental health issue he was experiencing at the time.

21 Mothers' family nicely attempted to intervene with intent to remove the Child
22 from the loud chaos in the bedroom where Father was so the Child could eat breakfast with her
23 cousins like a normal Child. Father held the Child hostage for a considerable amount of time,
24 without regard to the fact that Father was placing the Child in a hostile environment, unsuitable
25 for a baby. Even after Mothers family reminded Father that the Child should not be in that 26 environment, Father said he didn't care and would do whatever he wanted because he was the

1 Child's Father. Father made this inappropriate scene not only in front of the parties' Child but in 2 front of other children in Mother's family. Fathers' behavior during this incident was not in the 3 Best Interests of the Child.

5 Father claimed that the Police found marks on his neck. The police report clearly
6 states that Father had no marks on his neck. This is another example of Father misrepresenting
7 and lying about Police interaction between the parties. Father will use the Police as a tool in his 8 filings to make his accusations appear legitimate. However, the Police Reports never match what
9 Father claims in his Court filings or testimony. Father also uses the Police to falsely accuse
10 Mother of things she did not do, to further abuse and continue controlling Mother.

13 On Page 6, Paragraph 29 (B)(H) Father claims Mother had suicidal ideations. See
14 Exhibit 22.

15 In a Police Report from Pinal County Arizona, Father is screaming at Mother to kill
16 herself while Mother and the Child are locked in the bathroom away from Father. See Exhibit 17 23.

19 Father cannot pretend to be concerned with Mother's mental health when Father is 20 heard on video screaming at Mother to go kill herself, in front of the parties' child.

21 Father would drink heavily and encourage Mother to kill herself. Father would tell
22 Mother she was a shitty person, a bad Mother, worthless, useless, a crazy cunt, a stupid bitch, a 23 piece of shit human who didn't deserve to live and she should kill herself. This happened often,
24 always in front of the parties Child. Father making the claims that Mother was having suicidal
25 ideations is beyond disgusting when it was Father trying to convince Mother to commit suicide
26 for years.

1 If Father was concerned that Mother was suicidal from 2018-2022 like he claims in his
2 filings with this Court, why would Father allow Mother to be ALONE with the Child all day,
3 every day since the Child was born? Furthermore, why would Father have allowed Mother to 4 travel ALONE with the Child for weeks and months at a time to California throughout the 5 parties' relationship? Fathers claims of Mother being suicidal are untrue. But if this Court
6 believes Fathers grossly inaccurate accusations of Mother being suicidal, the Court must
7 consider, what kind of Parent leaves their Child home alone for days and weeks at a time with a
8 woman who is supposedly suicidal? How does Father expect anyone to believe a Trained Law
9 Enforcement Officer such as Father would leave their Child with someone who is suicidal for 5
10 years? Father would be significantly endangering the Child if his own claims were true.
11

13 Father would frequently leave the Child alone with Mother to go on vacations with his 14 friends, bachelor parties, hunting and camping in areas with no cell signal, travelling for work,
15 working 20+ hour days, going to the gym, drinking at the bar, work trips, volunteering at work,
16 misc. social functions, etc. What fit and proper parent would go do those activities and leave
17 their Child alone with a woman he claims is suicidal? Father's own claims don't make any sense.
18

19 Moreover, why would Father be screaming at Mother to kill herself in front of the Child, 20 if Father genuinely believed Mother was having suicidal ideations? Was Fathers intention to 21 make Mother commit suicide? That should raise significant concerns with this Court for both
22 Mother and Child's safety around Father. Is Father going to encourage or tell the Child to kill
23 herself too? Father had no issue telling Mother in front of the Child. How does a small Child 24 even know who Father is yelling at? Father's actions are not behavior consistent with a fit and 25 proper parent.
26
27
28

2 CHILD AND THEN COMING BEFORE THIS COURT CLAIMING MOTHER HAD
3 SUICIDCAL IDEATIONS FOR 5 YEARS TO GAIN AN UNFAIR ADVANTAGE IN A
4 DOMESTIC RELATIONS CASE IS NOT CONSISTENT WITH THE CHILDS BEST
5 INTERESTS.

8 Conveniently, Father had no concerns for Mothers mental health, until it came time for 9 Father to write out the Petitions, Motions and Declarations Father filed in this case. Father
10 screaming at Mother in front of the Child calling Mother a “Crazy Bitch” and a “Crazy Cunt”
11 continuously over the years was the only concern Father demonstrated regarding Mothers mental 12 health prior to the parties separating. Father would scream those names at Mother in front of the 13 Child.

16 When Mother had concerns about Fathers ability to care for the Child and the 17 Child’s safety with Father, Mother stopped leaving the Child unattended with Father. If 18 Father had genuine concerns for Mother being around the Child, Father would not have 19 left the Child unattended with Mother every single day since the Child was born.

22 On page 7, paragraphs 30, 31, Father admits to Domestic Violence. Father claims
23 Mother should not have legal decision-making authority for the Child, due to Mother allowing 24 the Child to witness Domestic Violence. Father says, “Mother has exposed the minor child to 25 repeated incidents of domestic violence.” Father then says that those actions “places the parties’
26
28

1 minor child in serious and potentially imminent risk of becoming a victim of domestic violence.”

2 See Exhibit 24.

3 THE PARTIES’ MINOR CHILD WAS ALREADY A VICTIM OF DOMESTIC
4 VIOLENCE AT THE HANDS OF FATHER.

6 It was only Father, Mother and Child who lived in the parties’ home. Father’s claim that
7 Mother allowed the Child to be a witness to Domestic Violence is Father’s admission of guilt to 8 this Court that Father was the perpetrator of Domestic Violence. But Father also tells this Court
9 that Mother's accusations of Father committing Domestic Violence are untrue. Father cannot 10 make both of those claims because both cannot physically be true. Father cannot say that Mother
11 should not have legal decision-making authority for allowing the Child to witness Domestic 12 Violence and then say that Mother is lying about Father committing Domestic Violence and 13 there was no Domestic Violence. Father contradicts his own claims constantly which makes it 14 impossible for Mother to respond to Fathers motions.

16 DOMESTIC VIOLENCE IS NOT MENTIONED IN THE TEMPORARY
17 ORDERS IN THIS CASE
18

19 In Fathers response to Mothers request for a Domestic Violence Restraining Order in 20 Los Angeles California, Father states there was no Domestic Violence. Father claims Mothers
21 request for a DVRO is retaliation. See Exhibit 25
22

23 How was Father admitting there was Domestic Violence in the Arizona Court but 24 claiming there was no Domestic Violence in the Los Angeles, CA Court?

25 This is another instance where Father tells whatever story works for Father at the moment
26 dependent upon his motive and target audience. Father has no regard for the fact his statements 27 contradict each other.
28

1 Father told the Court in Arizona that Mother allowed the Child to witness Domestic
2 Violence, therefore Father admitted to committing Domestic Violence. Father openly blamed
3 Mother for her own abuse and claimed he was deescalating situations which is how Mother had 4 dozens of documented injuries from Fathers abuse. Father changed his story again. Father denies
5 any existence of Domestic Violence at all in the Los Angeles California Court.

7 Father's contradictory statements were made under oath. Father intentionally committed
8 another act of perjury, in multiple Courts, about the same topic.

9 Furthermore, Father's claim that Mother allowed the Child to witness Domestic Violence
10 affirms that Mother did not participate in Unjustifiable Conduct by leaving the State of Arizona
11 with the Child, while escaping Domestic Violence. There are substantial laws in the State of 12 Arizona to protect victims of Domestic Violence. This Court should not punish Mother for 13 moving with the Child to another state with the presence of significant Domestic Violence and 14 Child Abuse. In determining whether the absence or relocation of a parent shall be weighed 15 against that parent in determining legal decision-making or parenting time, the court may 16 consider whether the absence or relocation was caused by an act of domestic violence by the 17 other parent. A.R.S. 25-403.03(I).
20

21 On Page 8, Father claims that Maternal Grandparents are the caretakers for the child. See
22 Exhibit 26.
23

24 In other filings and testimony Father presented in this Court, Father claims to have no
25 knowledge of where the Child is.
26
28

1 In one of Fathers declarations, he filed in the parties LA County DVRO case, Father
2 claims he hasn't known where the Child has been since August of 2022. Father even tells a
3 different story of how and why Mother and the Child left Arizona.

5 Father cannot claim in one breath that the Maternal Grandparents are taking care of the 6 Child and then say in another breath that Father isn't sure where Mother and the Child are.

7 Father makes different claims dependent upon what story will serve him in the moment.
8 Father even contradicts his own statements within a singular filing with this Court. If Father
9 claimed that Maternal Grandparents were the ones caring for the Child, then Father would have 10 known where the Child was. This was another significant misrepresentation of "facts" Father 11 deceptively presented to this Court.
12

13 Furthermore, Father intentionally omitted relevant facts about the Child's relationship
14 with Maternal Grandparents. Maternal Grandparents and Mother cared for the Child since birth
15 because Father was never around to do so, Father had other priorities. Father's priorities were his 16 career, gym, substance abuse, and social obligations. Mother cared for the Child every day since
17 the Child was born. The Child was Mothers priority regardless of what Mothers other obligations
18 were. If Mother had a medical procedure, medical imaging or an appointment where Mother
19 absolutely could not take the Child with her, Maternal Grandmother would either travel 6-8
20 hours to Arizona, helping Mother with the Child or Mother would travel to California alone with 21 the Child for Maternal Grandparents to help with the Child. Father witnessed all of this.

24 Father refused to utilize his paid sick time, vacation time or FMLA time to help Mother
25 when she needed it. Father didn't think twice about taking time off from work for hunting trips,
26 travelling with his friends, vacations, etc. Father avoided all responsibilities of taking care of the 27 Child unless there was an audience around.
28

1 Father also failed to disclose to the Court that Maternal Grandparents physically and
2 financially provided for the parties' Child significantly since the Child was born. Up until 3 August of 2022, the Child had spent over 1/3 of her life in California with Mother and Maternal
4 Grandparents, that is far more time than the Child spent with her father. The Child's bond was so
5 strong with Maternal Grandparents that on the two occasions when Father and Mother had 6 weddings to attend where Children were not permitted, Mother drove the Child 6-8 hours to 7 Maternal Grandparents so they could babysit the Child. Father never expressed complaints
8 regarding Maternal Grandparents helping care for and provide for the Child during the YEARS
9 Father and Mother were together. Therefore, Father cannot claim that he had an issue with it
10 after the fact. Father knowingly allowed the Child to develop a significant relationship with 11 Maternal Grandparents. Father did not object to that relationship between Maternal Grandparents
12 and the Child until Father filed this case.

17 On September 13, 2022, Father filed a Motion for Temporary Orders. Father again
18 pretends he doesn't know where Mother and Child are residing, and states Mother's address is 19 "unknown." If Father genuinely believed his unfounded accusation that Maternal Grandparents
20 were taking care of the Child, Father would know where Mother and the Child were. Again,
21 Father can't claim Maternal Grandparents are caring for the Child in one breath and in another
22 breath claim he has no idea where Mother and Child are. Father needs to pick one story or the 23 other.

25 On page 4 Paragraph, 14, Father claims he purchased school uniforms for the Child but 26 has conveniently excluded receipts. See Exhibit 27.

1 Father didn't provide receipts because Father has NEVER purchased clothing for the 2 Child. Mother and Maternal Grandparents purchased ALL clothing for the Child since birth
3 except for the occasional gift from friends or extended family. Mother has included a few of her
4 many receipts for the clothing and shoes she purchased for the Child during that time. See
5 Exhibit 28.

7 Within the same loaded Paragraph in Exhibit 27, Father claims that on a whim, Mother
8 erratically withdrew the Child from preschool in Arizona and took the Child to California.
9 Father's own statements within this filing contradict each other.

11 Father claimed he allowed Mother to go to California for medical treatment with the 12 Child in August of 2022. Father claims in the same filing that Mother erratically withdrew the 13 Child from preschool, that the Child was supposed to begin in August of 2022.

14 If Mother was leaving Arizona with the Child in August of 2022, the Child wouldn't be 15 attending preschool in Arizona the same week. Father did not check his math before he 16 submitted these false contradictory claims to the Court. Father's intentionally deceitful claims are 17 not only dishonest but physically impossible. How can Father legitimately claim the Child
18 should've been with Mother to get medical treatment in California at the same exact time Father
19 claims the Child should have been in preschool in Arizona? It is physically impossible for the 20 Child to be in two places at once.

22 Father also claims Mother was refunded tuition from the school and accused Mother of 23 keeping that tuition which was apparently owed to Father. Father hasn't provided any records of 24 enrollment, record of withdrawal or refund receipts because the story is untrue! Mother cannot 25 provide records to debunk Father's story because no such records exist.
26
28

1 If Mother received a refund of tuition, there would be a receipt. If the Child was enrolled
2 in that school, there would be official records. Where are the records?

3 This is a particularly serious accusation Father inappropriately made against Mother.
4 Father embellished and fabricated another storyline about Mother to make Mother look unstable.
5 Father used this story to inappropriately and unfairly damage Mothers credibility and appearance
6 as a parent with this Court. This is a very serious accusation for one parent to make against
7 another. That fact that Fathers claims are not true and are not an accurate representation of facts
8 is very concerning. Realistically, Fathers claim the Child should have been in two places at once
9 should be enough to prove Father is lying. Father's stories simply do not add up.
10

12 How could Mother reasonably be expected to co-parent with a man who not only violently
13 abused Mother and Child for years, but he is continuing to fabricate false claims against Mother,
14 using this Court to continue abusing her? In one small paragraph, Father caused extraordinary
15 damage when he accused Mother of erratically removing the Child from school, keeping tuition
16 that was due to be refunded to Father, and unnecessarily lying about who purchased the Child's 17 clothing. These dishonest accusations are not small, they are extremely damaging to Mother.
18 Father knowingly presented false claims to this Court about Mother that Father knew were 19 untrue. The false accusations Father made against Mother are so serious that this Court would 20 have the authority to issue an ex-parte order if Fathers accusations were true. The worst part is 21 there are dozens of little paragraphs in Fathers filings that are untrue. Fathers' dishonest
22 accusations are significant enough that Father unfairly damages Mothers credibility and 23 reputation as a parent.
26
27

1 Additionally, Father inappropriately used this exaggerated story in his Petition with this
2 Court to make the parties' situation appear urgent, so Father could request an expedited hearing.
3 Father has habitually circumvented rules and procedures of the Court by embellishing and 4 fabricating emergencies. This is another example of how Father's lies are used to misrepresent
5 the parties' situation to the Court while successfully damaging Mother's credibility and 6 reputation.

9 On October 13, 2022, Father filed a Motion for Alternate Service. Father listed Mothers
10 address as her parents address in Murrieta, CA where Father knew Mother and Child were living.
11 See Exhibit 29.

13 In subsequent filings Father reverted to his story, claiming he didn't know where Mother
14 and the Child were living. Father continued saying Mother's address is "unknown" while making
15 statements insinuating, he didn't know the location of Mother and the Child.

17 This is another example of Father intentionally misleading the Court. Why did Father put 18 Mothers correct address in the Motion requesting alternate service, on Fathers request for a 19 Restraining Order in Maricopa County Court and to the Gilbert Police Department (in August of 20 2022) but claim Mothers address was "unknown" on his previous and subsequent filings in this 21 Court?
22

23 Father intentionally misled the Court into believing that Mother is unstable and 24 concealing the Child, when Father proved in his own Motion Requesting Alternate Service that 25 Father in fact knew where Mother and the Child were.
26

27 Furthermore, Father knew exactly where Mother and Child were living until Fathers own
28 conduct caused Mother and Child to move. Father's threatening, intimidating, stalking, violent

1 and abusive behavior escalated again, causing Mother and Child to move for their safety. Father
2 has proven that he certainly knew where Mother and Child were when it was convenient for him.

3 Father intentionally continued pretending he didn't know where Mother and the Child
4 were living so that Father could unfairly accuse Mother of Participating in Unjustifiable
5 Conduct. Father knew exactly where Mother and Child were when it was convenient for 6 him. Father lied to this Court, telling a completely different story about his "knowledge" of 7 Mother and Child's location so that Father could unfairly and illegally obtain an outcome
8 favorable to him in this case. This was another serious accusation Father made against Mother
9 that Father knew to be untrue when Father presented his accusation to this Court. Father was 10 intentionally dishonest again to deceive the Court into making a ruling that the Court wouldn't 11 have ordered otherwise if the Court had been told the truth.

15 On December 13, 2022, Father filed a Pretrial Statement. Father claims again, Mother's 16 address is "unknown" when Father in fact knew where Mother and the Child were living.
17

18 Father's attorneys in California were sending correspondence to Mother at her parents
19 address in Murrieta, CA. Father's attorney Mrs. Andrade was sending correspondence to the same
20 address. Father had sent the Murrieta Police Department to perform welfare checks on Mother
21 and Child. Mother's address was clearly listed on the Temporary Restraining Orders that Mother
22 was sending to Father's attorney Caitlin Andrade while Father was evading service. Father along 23 with his family were driving by the home and knew Mother and the Child lived there.
24

25 Father proceeds to make statements such as "Father believes Mother remains in 26 California with the minor today" trying to insinuate Father is unaware of the Child's 27 whereabouts. Mother was in Riverside County participating in Court proceedings with Father.
28

1 Father cannot deny knowledge of these facts because Father sent attorneys on his behalf to the 2 hearings.

3 Father intentionally uses a lot of deceptive wording in his filings to manipulate and 4 mislead the Court.

7 Due to Father continuing his abusive behaviors, Mother requested a Domestic Violence
8 Restraining Order against Father in Riverside County, CA where Mother and the Child were 9 residing at the time. The Restraining Order application only allows a party requesting protection
10 to attach a limited number of declarations of incidents supporting the Request for a Restraining 11 Order. When Father filed a Response to Mothers request for a DVRO, Father lied about ALL of 12 Mothers declarations of incidents she attached to support her Restraining Order application.

14 For the sake of time and resources, attached are only a few of Mothers declarations that 15 were included to support Mother's request for a Domestic Violence Restraining Order in 16 Riverside County, CA. There are more incidents that Father also lied about. See Exhibit 30

19 On February 10, 2023, Father filed his Response to Mothers request for a Domestic 20 Violence Restraining Order in Riverside County, California.

21 In Fathers declaration, Father makes numerous false statements under oath and 22 subsequently omitted those records from the Maricopa County Court. Father willfully
23 committing perjury in another Court regarding Mother and Child in this case and then
24 purposefully omitting those records from the Maricopa County, AZ Court demonstrates Fathers
25 willful intention to deceive multiple Courts.
26
28

1 Here are a few of Father's flat out lies submitted under oath as a response to some of 2 Mother's declarations she submitted in Support of her DVRO application in Riverside County,
3 California.

5 1.) Father claims that on July 14, 2019, he did not remove belongings of Mother and
6 Child and throw them on to the filthy garage floor and into the garbage while heavily
7 intoxicated. Father doesn't attempt to make excuses for his conduct or blame Mother
8 for his behavior like he did in the Maricopa County, AZ Case. Instead, Father
9 confidently claims this incident never happened. See Exhibit 31.

10 Mother has provided a Police Report describing some of the videos of the incident
11 with photos of Mother and Child's property on the filthy garage floor. See Exhibit 12 32.

14 There is a video Mother took of the damage showing Mother and Child's property on 15 the filthy garage floor and in the garbage. In one of the videos taken during this 16 incident, Mother and were Child locked in the bathroom while Mother pleads with 17 Father to "stop breaking things, this is not okay" while you can hear Father screaming 18 obscenities and breaking property in the background.

20 Father cannot deny the incident happened when there is overwhelming evidence the 21 incident did occur. Father lied to the Court under Oath claiming this incident never 22 happened. Father told the Court that Mother was lying by making up the incident
23 which was very unfairly and inappropriately damaging to Mothers credibility.

25 It's even more concerning that Father would "forget" an incident like
26 this occurred when Mother and Child will remember the incident forever. Mother
27 believes that if Father were to respond to this motion that Father would attempt to 28

1 claim he forgot the incident happened, or Father would pretend his lying to the Court
2 was unintentional. However, Mother sent photos and videos pertaining to the incident
3 to Fathers attorney Caitlin Andrade in 2022, Fathers attorney certainly knew the 4 incident happened. It's unclear how Father can consciously continue claiming the 5 incident simply "didn't happen" when in fact it did happen. Similar incidents like this 6 happened many times over the years. This was not the only incident of this nature.

8 2.) Father claims that on December 9th, 2019, Mother, Father and Child were in Arizona
9 getting ready for Christmas. Father gives detailed accounts including dates of where 10 Father, Mother and the Child were during this time. Father claims the incident of 11 Domestic Violence Mother described DID NOT HAPPEN. Father significantly
12 attempted to discredit Mothers account of what happened to damage Mothers
13 credibility. Father was also attempting to create an alibi for himself. See Exhibit 33.
14 Father told the same lie to a detective in Los Angeles County, California. Father was 15 using the "I wasn't in the state so I couldn't have done it" defense when Mother
16 reported Father for Domestic Violence. Mother provided the flight record to the 17 Detective in Los Angeles County, CA, proving Father was in California on the date of 18 the incident. Mother picked Father up from the airport when Father flew into 19 California from Arizona. See Exhibit 34.
20 Additionally, there are photos and a video of Father assaulting Mother while she was

24
25 There is also a Police Report documenting the incident from the Los Angeles
26 County Sheriff's Department. See Exhibit 35.

1 There is also a Charge Evaluation Worksheet issued by the Los Angeles
2 County District Attorney regarding the Domestic Battery that took place on this day.
3 The 1-year statute of limitations had passed before Mother reported the incident. That 4 was the only reason Father was not charged with Domestic Battery. See Exhibit 36.
5 Throughout the photos and videos taken on this day, Father is wearing a hoodie
6 sweatshirt with Jeans, Mother is wearing a sweatshirt with pants, and the Child is in 7 Christmas pajamas. Father went to great lengths attempting to dismiss Mothers
8 account of abuse by telling the Court an entirely different story. Father claimed that 9 he and the Child visited his Father WITHOUT MOTHER, and this visit took place in 10 July of 2019. Father would not be wearing a hooded sweatshirt in Lancaster CA in 11 July; the Child would not be in Christmas pajamas. Father also claimed Mother
12 wasn't there. How was Mother present in photo evidence, video evidence and a 13 Police Report for Domestic Battery if Mother was not there?
14 Even worse, Father accused Mother of making up the entire incident. Father called 15 Mother a liar. Father insisted that the Domestic Battery never happened. There is 16 overwhelming evidence proving that the incident did happen. Father was in California
17 on that date and Mother was present. Father did commit Domestic Battery when 18 Father screamed in Mother and Child's face and shoved Mother and the Child while 19 Mother was holding the Child. The only reason Father wasn't charged with this 20 incident of Domestic Battery was because the 1-year statute of limitations expired.
23

26 Father lied under oath, in attempt to discredit Mothers serious accusations of 27 Domestic Violence and Child Abuse. Unless Father wants to also say that photos, videos, 28

1 LA County Sheriff's Department and the LA County District Attorney are lying too, the
2 overwhelming amount of evidence proves Father is the one being dishonest.

3 Again, this is another example of Fathers perjury and extensive fraud upon the Court.
5 Father lied to a Detective and multiple Courts regarding this incident of Domestic Violence. This
6 is not a mistake or a lapse in Father's memory. Father deliberately lied to a Court in a declaration
7 signed under oath to discredit Mothers credible accusations of Domestic Violence and Child
8 Abuse.

9 Father also lied about those incidents to the Court in Maricopa County, AZ. Mother
10 testified to these incidents of Domestic Violence and Child Abuse at the parties' Temporary
11 Orders hearing. Mothers' testimony was ignored because of Fathers misconduct. Now the Court
12 can see it was Father who was dishonest, not Mother.

15 In the same DVRO Response, Father requests the parties share Joint Custody of the 16 Child. How does Father come before the Court in Arizona claiming Mother is an unfit parent and 17 requires Supervised Visitation with the Child, while going in front of the Court in California
18 requesting parties' share Joint Custody of the Child with no supervision or restrictions imposed
19 on Mother? Father magically didn't have any complaints about Mothers parenting or other 20 fabricated allegations like Father made in the Maricopa County, AZ Court.
21

22 Father has significantly misled the Court in Maricopa County, AZ to believe Mother is 23 such a danger to the Child that Father convinced the Court to issue Temporary Orders denying 24 Mother proper Parenting time. What's more concerning is nobody is considering how that would 25 affect the Child. Father and the Court are so determined and focused on inappropriately
26 "punishing" Mother, they are not considering the safety, health or well-being of the Child. This

1 case isn't about Mother and Father, it is about the Best Interests of the Child. It is not in the best
2 interests of the Child to be removed from the only parent the Child has ever known since birth
3 and placed in the care and custody of the parent who abused her and her Mother in front of her.
5 Along with the Child being placed in a dangerous, violent environment with her Father, the 6 Child would also develop extreme psychological and emotional issues which is not in the Child's 7 Best Interests.

8 Father manipulated this Court into further victimizing the Child by placing her in the 9 Custody of their abuser. Why would Father request joint, shared custody of the Child in 10 California if Mother wasn't a fit parent?
11

12 In the Riverside County Court, Father didn't have similar Concerns about Mother, like 13 the highly exaggerated and fabricated claims Father presented in the Arizona Court.

14 It's nearly impossible to follow along with Father's made-up stories, false accusations and 15 baseless assumptions in this case because Fathers contradictory inconsistencies are never ending.

18 Father has made several mismatched statements in three different Courts about WHY
19 Mother requested DVRO's against Father. It's inappropriate for Father to assume what Mother is 20 thinking. Father does appreciate or respect that Mother has her own mind and voice back; Father
21 no longer speaks on behalf of Mother or tells Mother what she's permitted to think or say or do
22 like Father did while the parties were together. Additionally, nobody asked Fathers opinion on 23 WHY Mother was requesting a DVRO against Father. Frankly, Father's assumptions and 24 personal opinions of "why" or assumptions of what Mother is thinking are irrelevant.
25
26 Nevertheless, Father expressed his opinions in lieu of Facts in his declarations anyway. Father
27 did this purposefully to distract the Court and deflect the Court's attention away from the topics
28

1 of Domestic Violence and Abuse. Distraction and deflection are common tactics used when a
2 parties' intent is to avoid talking about a topic, such as Domestic Violence or Child Abuse on the
3 record. Deflection, Distraction and Avoidance are a few of the many tactics Father has used to 4 deceive three Courts regarding this case. None of Father's inconsistent claims about "why"
5 Mother filed requests for DVRO's to protect Mother and Child from Father were accurate.

7 Father's conflicting opinions in lieu of Facts pertaining to "why" Mother filed requests
8 for Domestic Violence Restraining Orders against Father also vary from Court to Court. Here are 9 a few of Fathers contradictory Opinions Father has disguised as Facts in his Declarations:
10

11 Father claims to the Riverside County Court that Mother filed requests for 12 Domestic Violence Restraining Orders in California because Mother wanted to 13 stay in California.

14 Father claims to the Los Angeles County Court that Mother filing requests
15 for Domestic Violence Restraining Orders in California is Mother retaliating
16 against Father for Father obtaining a Restraining Order against Mother and Father
17 serving Mother with the Maricopa County, Domestic Relations Case. (Father
18 obtained his restraining against Mother 7 months prior to Father making this 19 accusation and Father hadn't even filed his Petition for Temporary orders yet
20 when Mother filed her DVRO Petition)
21

22 Father claims to the Maricopa County Court that Mother filed requests for 23 Domestic Violence Restraining Orders to obtain Child Custody while committing
24 Forum Shopping and to delay the parties' Domestic Relations case in Maricopa 25 County.
26
28

1 That is just another example of how Father cannot manage to keep his story straight
2 because Father is not being honest. Father makes claims like these to divert the Courts' attention
3 away from the overwhelming evidence of Domestic Violence and Abuse.

5 These conflicting, differing stories from Father create massive complications for Mother
6 while she is trying to prepare and present her case. Once Mother learns how she can defend 7 herself from Fathers false claims or Mother requests the evidence she needs for upcoming
8 proceedings, etc. Father changes his story, causing Mother to have to start the process all over 9 again. Mother has had to spend considerable amounts of time and resources on preparing 10 motions that would not be necessary if Father was being honest and reasonable. Mother's time, 11 resources, energy etc. should be spent on the Child, instead of Mother being forced to chase after 12 Fathers ever changing lies.

15 THERE IS A SERIOUS ISSUE OF DISCRIMINATION IN THIS CASE PERTAINING 16 TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDERS
17

19 In August of 2022, Father obtained a Restraining Order against Mother. Father claimed
20 Mother posted videos on the internet of Father committing Domestic Abuse which were 21 embarrassing to Father. Father filed a criminal complaint against Mother with the Gilbert Police
22 Department. The criminal case against Mother was closed with no charges filed, and no probable
23 cause for arrest. This Court supported Father obtaining a Restraining Order against Mother and 24 used it as evidence against Mother. Fathers claims against Mother in his Restraining Order did 25 not include physical violence or the parties Child.
26
28

1 In September of 2022, Mother requested a DVRO against Father to protect Mother and
2 Child from Fathers abuse that was continuing. Mother's request for a Restraining Order included
3 evidence of YEARS of Significant Domestic Violence and Child Abuse including Physical 4 Violence, physical injuries, threats, intimidation and more against both Mother and Child.

6 Yet, this Court has penalized Mother and Child for obtaining DVRO's to protect herself
7 and the Child after YEARS of Significant Domestic Violence and Abuse suffered at the hands of 8 Father. The abuse Father committed against Mother and Child includes extreme Physical Abuse,
9 Child Abuse, Endangerment, Psychological Abuse, Emotional Abuse, Financial abuse, Coercive
10 Control and more.
11

12 There's a concerning discrepancy in how this Court has viewed and treated the parties
13 regarding Father and Mother obtaining Restraining Orders against each other. This discrepancy 14 fits the exact definition of discrimination. Especially when Mothers request for a DVRO was 15 based on hundreds of incidents of physical abuse, child abuse, psychological abuse, emotional 16 abuse and other abuse which not only took place throughout the parties' entire relationship but 17 also after Mother and Child moved to California.
18

19 Father's Restraining Order against Mother was based on an accusation of ONE incident
20 where videos of Father committing Domestic Violence and abuse were posted on the internet
21 which did not include the Child or any physical violence or physical injuries. This Court took 22 Fathers accusations of needing protection against Mother for one incident of non-violent nature
23 more seriously than it took Mother and Child needing protection from Father for hundreds of 24 incidents of significant Domestic Violence and abuse that has continued throughout this case.
27
28

1 Furthermore, Father continuously omits the factual reasons Mother requested DVRO's to 2 protect Mother and Child from Father.

3 MOTHER FILED REQUESTS FOR DVRO'S AS A REACTION AND RESPONSE TO 4 FATHER'S CONTINUED ACTS OF ABUSE.

6 Father fabricates stories or disguises his OPINIONS as FACTS regarding Mother
7 applying for DVRO's in California and submits his misrepresentations to the Maricopa County
8 Court. Father completely disregards the facts, to intentionally mislead the Court about what 9 abuse has happened.

10
11 Father never tells the Court the factual reasons WHY Mother had to file for a new DVRO
12 multiple times. Father committed at least one new incident of Domestic Violence every time
13 Mother had to re-file a request for a DVRO. Mother wouldn't have requested DVRO's at all if 14 Father had stopped his abusive behaviors.

15 FATHERS VIOLENT, INTIMIDATING, THREATENING, TERRIFYING
16 ACTS OF ABUSE ARE THE CAUSE.

17
18 MOTHER REQUESTING DVRO'S TO PROTECT HERSELF AND THE CHILD
19 FROM FATHERS CONTINUED ABUSE ARE THE EFFECT.

20 If Father hadn't continued his acts of abuse against Mother and Child, Mother would not 21 have reacted by requesting another DVRO to protect themselves. Father conveniently leaves out
22 the cause portion of the equation when he complains to the Arizona Court about Mother
23 requesting DVRO's against him. Father spins the story so far out of control and out of context
24 that Mother cannot fathom how to prove to the Court that her requests for DVRO's were made in 25 good faith because the overwhelming evidence Mother has submitted with her DVRO requests
26 prove Mother and the Child NEED protection from Fathers continued acts of abuse. Father lies 27
28

1 so excessively that there are often no records besides Fathers own conflicting statements to prove
2 Fathers lying. In this case, Father continues telling the Court in Maricopa County, AZ about
3 Mother filing requests for DVRO's while Father is disguising his opinions as facts about why
4 Mother had to request DVRO's to protect herself and the Child from Father. Father conveniently
5 omits the new acts of abuse Father committed which Mother subsequently reported to the Court
6 every time she requested a new DVRO.

8 After Mother and Child moved to California, Father continued to threaten, intimidate,
9 harass and stalk Mother without regard for the fact that Fathers actions also affect the Child.
10 Mother attempted to solicit assistance from Law Enforcement due to Fathers harassing, stalking, 11 threatening, intimidation, etc. Mother was told she needed to obtain a DVRO against Father by 12 both Law Enforcement and multiple Domestic Violence assistance organizations.
13

14 The acts Father was committing against Mother and Child are the identical acts any other
15 victim of abuse is encouraged to get a DVRO for. Just because Father is a Police Officer doesn't 16 give him the permission to be abusive. Because of Fathers profession, his victims aren't afforded
17 the same protection as other victims. If Father was in another line of work, the Court wouldn't 18 think twice about Mother and Child needing protection from Father.
19

20 Additionally, just because Father filed this case after Mother filed her initial request for a 21 DVRO does not preclude Mother from requesting a Court protect Mother and Child from 22 continued abuse. The parties in active litigation in this Domestic Relations case don't remove 23 Mother and Child's rights to be protected. Father has committed the same acts of violence as 24 other men. The difference is their victims are protected while Mother and Child in this case are 25 being penalized for Mother trying to protect herself and the Child. Father has not been remotely
26
28

1 honest with this Court regarding the DVRO's. Father has made numerous conflicting statements
2 between Courts, none of which are true.

6 On May 8, 2023, Parties had an evidentiary hearing scheduled in Los Angeles County,
7 CA for Mother's DVRO request. The morning of Court, Father filed an untimely 160+ page
8 motion filled with contradictory, unbelievable stories and fraudulent evidence.

9 The parties had several weeks' notice prior to the hearing and both parties' attorneys
10 were in constant contact with each other. The massive motion was intentionally filed the same
11 day of Court, so that Mother would not have an opportunity to defend herself against the untrue
12 statements and pick out the fraudulent evidence Father submitted to the Court.

14 Among the many falsities, Father claimed that Mother had 4 previous cases requesting 15 DVRO's which were dismissed with prejudice. That is untrue and impossible due to the fact
16 you cannot refile a case once it's dismissed with prejudice. This statement was repeated many 17 times throughout the motion. This statement was not made as an oversight, misunderstanding or 18 error. Father intentionally made previous false statements about the cases being dismissed with 19 prejudice because Father used that statement to request the Judge on the case cancel the 20 evidentiary hearing and dismiss the case without considering any evidence, testimony or rebuttal
21 from Mothers side. Father used that lie as a deceptive tactic, attempting to get the case dismissed
22 without Mother having an opportunity to present her case.

25 Unfortunately, this was not the only time Father told exaggerated lies attempting to get a 26 case dismissed while violating Mother's rights to due process. Father does everything he can to

1 not play by the rules. Father's attempt to deceive the Judge into dismissing the case without
2 scheduling an evidentiary hearing was not successful.

3 Due to Fathers conduct significantly misrepresenting “facts” to the Court and playing
4 games in the parties previous DVRO cases, Mother could not possibly represent herself. Mother
5 had to hire a very expensive attorney who took up financial resources that could have been used
6 on the parties’ Child.

8 No victim of Domestic Violence or Abuse should have to hire an attorney to obtain
9 an order of protection from their abuser!
10

11 A few hours before the parties’ evidentiary hearing, Father threatened to have Mother
12 arrested immediately upon stepping into the Courtroom if Mother appeared in Court for this 13 DVRO evidentiary hearing. Mother nor her attorney had time to consult with a criminal attorney
14 to determine if Father had some bogus charges filed against Mother, etc. Mother took Fathers
15 threat seriously because Father had threatened Mother with having her falsely arrested for years
16 during the parties’ relationship. (Mothers accusation of Father threatening Mother with arrest
17 was documented on the Courts record months prior to this event happening)
18

19 Mother did not appear in Court due to the threats made by Father. Mother’s attorney
20 appeared on Mother’s behalf. The case was dismissed WITHOUT PREJUDICE due to 21 Mother’s failure to appear. The case WAS NOT Dismissed because the Court ruled Mothers
22 allegations were unfounded although that is what Father continues to claim.
23

24 Mother filed a Police report for dissuasion of a victim, witness or party to a case. The 25 investigation status is active.
26
28

Father successfully dissuaded Mother from attending the evidentiary hearing as a Party, Witness and Victim of a Domestic Violence Restraining Order case by threatening Mother.

Dissuasion of a Witness, Victim or Party to a DVRO case is considered another act of Domestic Violence and is a Criminal Violation of the Law.

Father will intentionally misinform this Court by claiming that that the Los Angeles Court determined Mothers allegations of Domestic Violence were unfounded. Father has made statements like that repeatedly throughout the course of this case. Father's deceptive statements are untrue. To this day, 1 year after Mothers initial request for a DVRO, there has NEVER been an evidentiary hearing for a Domestic Violence Restraining Order. Father evaded service for 6 months while sending attorneys on his behalf to get cases dismissed, while Father was actively violating the active Restraining Orders. Father has even lied to this Court claiming the Judge in California found Mothers accusations of Domestic Violence and abuse unfounded. That has never happened! In Fact, the Judge in the parties' action in Los Angeles, CA corrected Father and told Father that Mothers accusations WERE NOT UNFOUNDED OR FOUNDED as the Court never had an opportunity to hear the case in an evidentiary hearing. Father continues spreading false statements from Court to Court without any consequences for his intentional misrepresentation of facts.

Father has intentionally stated massive amounts of deceptive misinformation on the record from the beginning of this case. It's impossible for Mother to clean up all the false information Father has maliciously placed on the record. The more motions Mother files trying to clean up this mess, the more lies Father responds with.

1 Father filed many additional misleading statements to the Los Angeles, CA Court
2 regarding Mother's previous DVRO actions. One of those misrepresentations is when Father
3 states that Mother filed her first petition for a DVRO on September 15, 2022. See Exhibit 37.

5 That is not true, it was filed on September 13, 2022. Father did not switch up the dates
6 by mistake. Father knows the correct date of Mother's filing; Father had no issue stating the 7 correct date on other filings Father has submitted.

8 Father claims that Mother filed her request for a DVRO on September 15th in retaliation
9 of Father serving Mother with the summons for the Maricopa County Domestic Relations Case
10 and Fathers Order of Protection against Mother. Fathers' accusation is not only dishonest but 11 physically impossible.
12

13 Father filed his Petition for Temporary Orders in Maricopa County on September 13,
14 2022. This was coincidentally the same day that Mother filed her first DVRO request in 15 Riverside County, CA. For Fathers claim that Mothers motive for requesting a DVRO was 16 retaliation to seem accurate or believable, Father needed the filing date of Mothers Petition for a
17 DVRO to be AFTER the date Father filed his Petition for Temporary Orders. Father had to lie
18 about the dates to legitimize Fathers fabricated claim that Mother filing her request for a DVRO
19 on September 13, was filed in retaliation of Father serving Mother with the Domestic Relations
20 case and Order of Protection Father obtained in Maricopa County.
21

22 That entire paragraph in Father's declaration shown in Exhibit 37, isn't an accidental 23 misrepresentation or an innocent error, it is another bold, calculated, fabricated lie.
24

25 Father did not serve Mother with his Order of Protection until February of 2023. Mother 26 had not been served with anything from Maricopa County Superior Court as of September 13th,
27

1 2022. Fathers Petition for Temporary Orders wasn't even filed with the Maricopa County Court
2 until September 13, 2022.

3 Furthermore, Father filed a Motion on October 15, 2022, in Maricopa County, AZ,
4 requesting the Court Order Alternate Service to serve Mother with the Maricopa County Case.
5 One look at a calendar will prove Mother had not been served with anything on September 13,
6 2022, the day Mother filed her initial request for a DVRO in Riverside County, CA.

8 Father fabricated the entire story, even changing dates so that Father could claim Mother
9 requested her initial DVRO in retaliation for Father serving Mother with his Restraining Order
10 and Petition for Temporary Orders.

12 If this Court believes Fathers claim to be true and Mother had been served by Father prior 13 to Mother filing her request for a DVRO on September 13, 2022, Father should explain to this
14 Court how he served Mother with the Motion for Temporary Orders on the same day the motion
15 was filed with the Maricopa County Court. Additionally, why would Father request this Court
16 grant Father an Order for alternate service in October of 2022 for Mother if Father supposedly 17 already served Mother prior to Mother obtaining a DVRO against Father on September 13, 18 2022?

20 Father told another kind of similar story to the Court in Maricopa County, AZ. Father
21 claimed Mother filed a request for a DVRO as a response to Father serving Mother with his 22 Petition from Maricopa County. Father has not explained to this Court how he managed to serve
23 Mother with Court documents that Father hadn't even filed in Arizona at the time when Mother
24 requested a DVRO to protect herself and the Child from further abuse. Father has not only 25 made-up conflicting stories but has also edited dates, fabricated evidence, etc. to assist in 26
28

1 substantiating his lies. Again, Fathers conduct creates an exceptional difficulty for Mother trying
2 to defend her case when Father is intentionally submitting fraudulent claims to the Court.

3 Father cannot have it both ways. Father needs to pick one of his fabricated versions of 4 events and stick to it. Mother cannot effectively defend herself against the ridiculous and 5 continuously changing claims Father fabricates. Father's contradictory stories between Courts
6 don't add up and are intentionally confusing.

8 The entire paragraph Father wrote about Mother's DVRO request being retaliatory was 9 intentionally deceptive, there wasn't a single word of truth. Additionally, Fathers claim didn't
10 match his previous claims in the Arizona or Riverside County Courts. Mother cannot effectively
11 defend her case when Father not only lies but is so brazen that he even changes filing dates in his 12 declarations he submits to the Court under penalty of Perjury. It would be an impossible task for 13 Mother to fact check every word Father claims in his massive motions filled with irrelevant
14 information Father submits to the Court. Nor can Mother afford to hire an attorney to do such 15 tedious, time-consuming work. As long as Father continues being dishonest with the Court,
16 Mother will not have a fair opportunity to present her case or defend herself against Fathers
17 audacious claims.

19
20 FATHER ACCUSED MOTHER OF OBTAINING A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
21 RESTRAINING ORDER AGAINST FATHER WITH RETALIATION AS MOTHER'S 22 MOTIVE.
23

24 FATHER MADE THIS SERIOUS ACCUSATION AGAINST MOTHER KNOWING
25 THE ACCUSATION TO BE UNTRUE.

26 That is a significantly damaging accusation against Mother that Father completely
27 fabricated. Father has habitually concocted stories with the intent to inappropriately and unfairly
28

1 damage Mother's reputation and credibility dozens of times throughout this case, in three
2 different Courts. This was another instance of Father manipulating and twisting the "facts" of 3 this case, creating a narrative that was simply not true.

5 Furthermore, Fathers deceptive claims have caused legitimate victims of Domestic 6 Violence and Child Abuse to be unfairly unprotected from their abuser.

8 In the same filing, Father tells the Los Angeles Court "I hired counsel to specially appear
9 on my behalf to contest jurisdiction, as the Petitioner had failed to serve me by this date." Father
10 blamed Mother for the parties' DVRO actions dragging on for an outrageous amount of time by 11 blaming Mothers lack of service for why Father wasn't attending the parties DVRO hearings.
12

13 Maricopa County Sheriff's Office records show an MCSO deputy attempted to serve 14 Father on many occasions. MCSO spoke to Father on the telephone, left messages for Father on 15 voicemail, left cards in Father's door, and attempted to contact Father at work. Father knew 16 MCSO was attempting to serve him because Father agreed to meet the MCSO deputy on 17 multiple occasions, but Father failed to follow through with the MCSO Deputy. Mother had to 18 file a formal complaint with MCSO to get Father served. See Exhibit 38.
19

20 When Mother filed a formal complaint with MCSO about the lack of service, MCSO told
21 Mother that they were giving Father professional Courtesy because he is a Police Officer. MCSO
22 Could not serve Father at home or at work. MCSO gave Father the Courtesy of scheduling a 23 convenient time to meet up with Father. MCSO wouldn't have been so patient with a regular 24 citizen evading the service of a DVRO from their Deputies. In this instance, Father abused his 25 position as a Law Enforcement Officer again. Father clearly knew of the DVRO cases, or Father 26 wouldn't have hired an attorney to appear on Fathers behalf at Court appearances.

1 Again, Father blames Mother for his actions. Father purposefully evaded service and
2 clearly knew about the DVRO hearings if Father sent an attorney to Court on his behalf. Fathers'
3 attorney in Arizona and Fathers employer, the Mesa Police Department were both provided
4 copies of Mothers DVRO filings. Father was being contacted by a deputy with MCSO who was 5 attempting to serve Father for months. Yet, Father blames Mother for not serving him in time for 6 why Father didn't appear at the Court hearings, further delaying proceedings. Mother had to live
7 with Father constantly blaming and punishing her for every issue in Father's life, regardless of if
8 the issue was genuinely Mother's fault or not. Now that Father does not have access to abuse
9 Mother, Father is using the Court system to blame Mother for his actions and further abuse
10 Mother. Father refusing to accept service of the DVRO's is nobody's fault but his own. Father 11 does not know how to take accountability or responsibility for anything in his life.

14 Additionally, Father continued to violate the Domestic Violence Restraining Orders
15 while they were active and got away with it because Father hadn't been served. Law
16 Enforcement could not do anything to stop Fathers abusive conduct during the time there was an 17 active Restraining Order because Father was evading service. Mother had to keep re-filing when 18 new incidents of Domestic Violence would occur. Mother had no other legal recourse for Father
19 continuing to knowingly violate the conditions of the DVRO.

22 In the same Declaration Father filed in the Los Angeles, CA, Father describes the next
23 Riverside County DVRO hearing. Father purposefully omits several pieces of this record from 24 his statement. Father does not disclose there was another hearing in Riverside County in which 25 Father sent counsel on his behalf again. Only Mother by herself and Fathers Counsel appeared in 26 person at the hearing, Father did not appear. Father has also intentionally omitted the record of 27

1 this Court hearing from the Maricopa County Court record. Father intentionally only submitted 1
2 page of the record of this DVRO case to the other Courts while omitting the pages he didn't want
3 the other Courts to see.

5 At this hearing, The Honorable Judge Kristi Kirk told Fathers attorney that the Court
6 would be taking Jurisdiction over the DVRO. The Honorable Judge Kristi Kirk made this 7 decision due to Father continuing his abuse since Mother and Child were present in the State of 8 California. The Judge provided Mother and Fathers counsel with case law that she was using to 9 support her decision. The case was Hogue vs. Hogue.

11 This Judge also advised Fathers counsel that if Father or Father's attorney did not accept
12 service of Mothers DVRO, the Court would email the DVRO to Father and consider it served.

13 Father filed a Preemptory Challenge, 170.6 motion after that hearing to change the Judge
14 on the case. Father intentionally omitted the record of those actions from the record in Maricopa
15 County and the Los Angeles Courts. Father can't reasonably blame Mother for delaying
16 proceedings when it was Father causing the delays. Father couldn't manipulate this Judge; Father
17 didn't get a favorable result from his tactics. Father didn't like that the Judge could see right
18 through his games, so Father created another delay and diversion by unreasonably changing the 19 Judge. Father claimed the Judge had a bias against him, but Father never even appeared in Court.

20
21 Father did not like that the Judge admonished Fathers attorney for refusing to accept
22 service on behalf of Father, which resulted in the case being dragged on from September of 2022
23 until Father finally accepted service in FEBRUARY of 2023.

25 This Judge listened to Mother, read prior Court transcripts and was able to see that father
26 was playing games with the Court, all while continuing to commit acts of abuse against Mother
27 and Child. The Honorable Judge Kristi Kirk intentionally put it on the record that Fathers
28

1 attorney was again refusing to accept service on behalf of Father. Father refused to accept
2 service from September of 2022 until FEBRUARY of 2023.

3 Father has intentionally omitted the documents pertaining to that hearing or Father
4 delaying proceedings with his Change of Judge motion to the Maricopa County Court. See
5 Exhibit 39.

7 To this day, Father has never adequately or respectfully addressed the Domestic Violence
8 and abuse allegations that Mother has submitted to the Courts, aside from lying saying the events
9 never happened or blaming the victims for their own abuse.

11 Fathers filings inappropriately attempt to paint Mother as a horrible person to deflect
12 from Father's own anger management issues, substance abuse issues, Child abuse and Domestic 13 Violence Father has committed. Father deflects off the Topics of Domestic Violence or Child
14 Abuse by fabricating stories to damage Mothers credibility and perceived Parental Fitness.
15 Father literally points the finger at Mother about an irrelevant topic whenever the Topics of 16 abuse arise. Father successfully distracts the Court no matter how much evidence Mother has 17 submitted to this Court.

19 Father intentionally files dishonest claims that he knows are untrue, misleading the 20 Courts so that Father doesn't have to answer for the living hell of a nightmare he put Mother and 21 Child through for years. Father has never gone before a Judge and honestly testified to the photos
22 of injuries, videos of Fathers abusive behavior, police reports depicting Fathers abuse, etc.

24 Instead, Father will reply to Mother's request for a DVRO with 100+ pages of 25 distractions, refusing to speak of or address Domestic Violence or Child abuse. Thus far,
26 Father's technique of distraction and deflection has worked. Father turns each Courtroom into a 27

1 three-ring circus full of distractions that have nothing to do with the topics that are of primary
2 importance.

3 This Motion is about Vacating the Temporary Orders due to Fathers Unjustifiable
4 Conduct and Fraud on the Court. Father's Dishonest Conduct caused this Court to issue
5 Temporary Orders that are not consistent with the Child's Best Interests, Arizona Rules of 6 Family Law Procedure, Arizona Law or the United States Constitution.

9 When Father replies to this Motion, Father will tell this Court more contradictory,
10 embellished, fabricated stories about Mother. Father will not take any accountability or 11 responsibility for the YEARS of abuse he put Mother and Child through. Father will 12 conveniently fail to address all the deceitful lies and fabricated stories Father has told each Court.
13 Mother has only outlined a few of Fathers many Deceitful Actions and incidents of Perjury in 14 this Motion, there are many more.

17 Father has no legal reason as to why he lied in multiple Courts in Declarations Father
18 signed under the penalty of Perjury. Father has no legal defense for why he told Law
19 Enforcement different stories than he has told this Court. Father can't even make reasonable
20 excuses for why his own claims contradict each other in his own motions; sometimes Father's 21 claims even contradict each other in the same motion.
22

23 Fathers' response to this motion will surely be filled with more deceitful claims about 24 Mother. Father will intentionally mislead the Court even more while submitting additional 25 dishonest statements on the record. Father has demonstrated a pattern of unethical behavior that 26 proves Father will never tell the truth or litigate this case fairly. In this Motion, Mother has 27 pointed out multiple instances where Father has lied to the Court, causing irreparable damage.
28

1 Father will still find a way to continue manipulating this Court to make Fathers dishonest
2 Conduct Mother's fault. Father will even request this Court punish Mother for his own actions.

3 Father's Response to this Motion will also tell the Court how Mother is not following the 4 Temporary Order in attempt to overshadow all the perjury, deceitful tactics, and fabricated
5 evidence Father used to fraudulently obtain the Temporary Order. There is no legal excuse
6 Father can use to justify the deceitful conduct Father demonstrated, convincing this Court to 7 issue the Temporary Orders in this case. Father will continue distracting this Court from the fact
8 that Father is the real problem. Father will likely have a new, compelling story to tell the Court
9 while changing his claims, evidence, etc. to fit his objectives in the moment.
10

13 Mother had to file her request for a DVRO in Los Angeles County in February of 2023
14 after moving to Los Angeles. There was a new incident of Domestic Violence when Father
15 threatened to burn Mother's Parents house down while his Father was driving by and sitting 16 outside Mothers parent's home. Father talks about mother obtaining a DVRO in Los Angeles, 17 CA with the Maricopa County Court. Of Course, Father takes the situation out of context and 18 puts his own spin on the story for the Court. Father conveniently omits the details of what he did
19 to contribute to the incident that caused Mother to file her request for a DVRO and caused 20 Mother to move.
21

22 Mother obtaining a DVRO against Father in Los Angeles was the effect. Father driving
23 by Mothers parents' home while calling Mother threatening to burn the house down with 24 everyone inside, including the Child was the Cause. Fathers' abusive, illegal conduct is always 25 the cause. Father only provides the Maricopa County Court with the effect of Mother requesting 26 a DVRO, Father doesn't tell the Court the entire story. How has Mother submitted evidence 27

1 including photos, videos, Police reports, etc. to the Court that Mother is attaching to her requests
2 for a DVRO? Fathers claims that Mother is just frivolously or maliciously requesting DVRO's
3 doesn't even make sense when Mother has overwhelming evidence that the abuse did occur and 4 is continuing to occur.

6 Mother and Child moved from Murrieta (Riverside County) to Los Angeles when Father
7 called Mother threatening to burn the house down if Mother didn't return to Arizona
8 immediately. Father's Dad's truck was parked down the street from Mother's parents' home and 9 was spotted driving by at the same time as the threats from Father which made Father's threats
10 more credible than usual. Father's Dad's truck is not only custom and unique, but it is equipped
11 with an advanced GPS system through Ford. GPS records can be subpoenaed to prove it was in 12 fact his vehicle used to stalk Mother while acting as an accomplice to Father committing another
13 act of Domestic Violence by making criminal threats.

15 Father will continue to file inaccurate misrepresentations of "facts" with this Court. The 16 actual facts are simple. Mother attempted to obtain a DVRO to protect herself and the Child from 17 Father's continued abuse after YEARS of Significant Domestic Violence and abuse. Father
18 continued to violate the DVRO's without any consequences because Father was evading service 19 for over 6 months.

21 When Father called Mother screaming, threatening to kill Mother, the Child and Mother's 22 Family while Father's Dad's truck was in Mothers parents' neighborhood, what does this Court
23 expect Mother to do? Mother immediately moved for her and the Child's safety. Moving to Los 24 Angeles was never Mother's plan or intention. Mother and Child moving to Los Angeles was the 25 effect of the unsafe circumstances Father created.

1 Father continues telling the Maricopa County Court that Mother requested DVRO's but
2 Mother cannot determine why the Court would punish her for attempting to protect herself and 3 the Child from the continued acts of harassment and abuse Father kept committing.

5 Father would not stop his psychotic behavior which terrified Mother, the Child and
6 Mothers family. Due to Fathers conduct and refusal to accept service of the TRO's, Mother
7 could not obtain lawful protection against Father. Mother was left with no other choice but to 8 move since Father could not help himself but to continue his uncontrollable psychotic behavior.
9 Father does not care how his erratic; abusive actions affect the parties' Child or Mother.
10

11 Father pretends like his actions never happen while showcasing Mother's provoked
12 responses to Father's continued abuse.

13 Father's accusations that Mother committed "forum shopping" while requesting a DVRO
14 to protect Mother and the Child from further abuse after Mother and Child experienced many 15 years of abuse is another concerning example of Father intentionally misleading the Court.
16

17 Mother was naïve to think Father would stop his abuse after Mother and the Child moved
18 to California. When the abuse continued, Mother exercised their Constitutional rights to request
19 equal protection from abuse, by filing a request for a Domestic Violence Restraining Order at the 20 Court closest to where Mother and the Child lived. Mother was advised to do so by multiple Law
21 Enforcement agents as well as Domestic Violence Organizations.
22

23 By law, Mother is supposed to file a Petition for a DVRO at the Courthouse closest to 24 where she resides. Mother has only filed Restraining Order applications against Father at the two 25 Courthouses closest to where she lived at the time when she filed.

26 Additionally, DCFS opened an investigation into this family. DCFS told Mother that 27 Mother needed to obtain a DVRO to protect herself and the Child from Fathers abuse and agree
28

1 not to return to Arizona. Otherwise DCFS would remove the Child from Mothers care and place
2 the Child into foster care for failure to protect the Child from Father's abuse. Mother doesn't
3 want to traumatize the Child, which will happen if the Child ends up in foster care. Mother is the 4 parent who is looking out for the Child's best interests. Mother has obeyed every command from 5 DCFS.

7 Over a dozen Law Enforcement professionals who have knowledge of or involvement
8 with this case have told Mother that she NEEDS a DVRO for her and the Child. Mother has 9 followed the directions of professionals who deal with Domestic Violence and Child Abuse.
10 Therefore, Mother should not continue to have the fact that she has requested protection from 11 their abuser be held against her.
12

13 Mother's motive has never been forum shopping. You can tell by this Petition that 14 Mother is clearly not an attorney. Regular citizens that are not attorneys do not know what 15 "forum shopping" is. Mother had never heard of the term "forum shopping" prior to this case.
16 Upon looking up the legal definition of forum shipping, Mother did not commit forum shopping.
17 It's concerning anyone would believe that Mother attempting to protect herself and their Child
18 from Significant Domestic Violence and Child Abuse was committing forum shopping.
19

20 A Mother and Child victims of Domestic Violence and Abuse should be protected from 21 their abuser regardless of which Court Mother filed a request for a Restraining Order in. Any 22 victim who moves away from their abuser and is still experiencing abuse such as stalking, 23 threatening, intimidation, harassment, etc are not thinking about "forum shopping" prior to 24 requesting a lawful Order of Protection from further abuser.
25

26 It's troubling this Court would expect Mother who was experiencing continued abuse, to 27 return to Arizona, where their abuser is, to file a Restraining Order to protect Mother and Child
28

1 from further abuse. Restraining Orders are valid and observed in all 50 states regardless of the 2 Court that issued the Restraining Order. One would think that all restraining orders would be the 3 same regardless of which Court issued the Order.

5 Furthermore, in Arizona Mother would be required to physically go into the Courthouse
6 to obtain a Restraining Order against Father. Did this Court expect Mother to drive 6-8 hours to 7 obtain a Restraining Order in Arizona, a State Mother no longer lived in? That would potentially 8 put Mother and Child in more danger travelling to the location where their abuser lives. Or was 9 Mother supposed to continue allowing Father to abuse Mother and Child AFTER Mother and 10 Child moved to California? It was enough Mother and Child had to endure years of literal hell
11 being abused by Father, they didn't deserve or need Father calling screaming at them or hacking
12 into electronics, etc. after Mother and Child moved.

14 Father unexpectedly kicked Mother and Child out of their home in another act of 15 Domestic Violence. That wasn't the first time Father kicked Mother and Child out of their home.
16 It was, however, the first time that Mother didn't go back when Father demanded she return.
17 Father cannot unexpectedly kick Mother and Child out of their home while Father is committing 18 significant, extreme Domestic Violence against Mother and Child and then reasonably expect to 19 have control over where Mother and Child go. How does this Court not see Father's actions as 20 controlling and abusive? Father requesting the return of the Child to Arizona has nothing to do
21 with the Child and everything to do with Control and continuing his abuse.

24 In the past Father has kicked out Mother and Child multiple times. Mother and Child
25 would go to California for differing amounts of time. Father would either claim he was going to 26 get help for his issues to convince Mother to return to the abusive relationship or Father would 27 threaten Mother which would result in Mother returning to the abusive relationship out of fear.
28

1 This time was different than the previous times, Father undoubtedly knew when Mother and
2 Child left Arizona in August of 2022 that they were not returning to Arizona.

3 Father was fully aware that the only place Mother could go was to her parents in 4 California, the same place Mother went the other times Father kicked Mother and Child out of 5 their home. Father filed this case in the Maricopa County Superior Court when Father realized
6 Mother was no longer allowing herself or the Child to be further abused by Father. There are 7 rules and laws in place that are supposed to protect a Mother and Child after a Mother finally
8 gathers the courage to say enough is enough. Mother should be assisted and protected by this 9 Court, not penalized for standing up for herself and their Child against being abused. Especially 10 when Father comes before this Court claiming Mother allowed the Child to witness Significant 11 Domestic Violence, which is contrary to the Child's best interests. If it's contrary to the Child's 12 Best Interests for Mother and Child to stay in an abusive situation, why would this Court punish 13 Mother and Child for leaving that abusive situation? And why would this Court want to place an 14 innocent Child back into that situation? Mother and Child are punished whether they stayed or 15 left the abusive situation.

16 Mother kept herself and the Child removed from the perpetual abusive situation with 17 Father, which is in the Best Interests of the Child. Mother nor Child should be legally subjected 18 to any additional abuse from Father. Not only is this Court forcing Mother and Child to be 19 subjected to further abuse by Father a violation of the Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure
20 but also contradictory to the Laws of the State of Arizona and the Constitution of the United 21 States of America.

22 Due to the fact Mother has never filed a Restraining Order in her life prior to this action,
23 Mother would have no knowledge that the provisions in a Restraining Order are different
26
27
28

1 between California and Arizona or any other state. Mother still has no comprehension of the
2 difference in a Restraining Order in Arizona versus California aside from Fathers attorney
3 Caitlin Andrade claiming in Court that there are some kind of different provisions in the 4 California Restraining Orders that are not in the Arizona Restraining Orders. How would a Court
5 reasonably expect a regular person to know that Restraining Orders are different in each state?
6 Mother and Child continued to be abused after they moved to California. Mother should not be
7 expected to drive 6-8 hours back to Arizona, where their abuser lives, to file a Restraining Order
8 to protect Mother and Child. Mother, nor any other victim of Domestic Violence would think of 9 travelling to another State to file a Restraining Order. Mother was only thinking about what she 10 could do to make the harassment, threats, intimidation and abuse stop immediately when Father
11 would not stop causing chaos in Mother and Childs life. Mother went to the nearest Courthouse, 12 closest to where Mother and Child lived to request a Domestic Violence Restraining Order to 13 protect herself and the Child from Fathers continued abuse. Mother obtained the restraining order
14 prior to Father filing his Petition for Temporary Orders in Arizona. Mother had not been served
15 with any legal paperwork in Arizona. Fathers claims about why Mother obtained a DVRO are 16 false and inconsistent with basic common sense.

18 This Court punishing Mother and Child over false allegations of “Forum Shopping” and 19 stories Father has embellished and fabricated is an extreme injustice to Mother and Child.
20 Logically, the accusation of Forum Shopping made by Father does not even make sense.
21 Additionally, there is no statute in the State of Arizona pertaining to Legal Decision Making or 22 Parenting Time for a parent who does commit Forum Shopping.”

24 Mother requesting a DVRO from the Courthouse closest to where she resides is not 25 Forum Shopping. It is Mother trying to keep herself, the Child and Mother’s family safe from 26
28

1 further abuse that CONTINUED to happen AFTER Mother and Child moved to California. It
2 would be ridiculous for Father to expect that mother and Child would leave an abusive situation,
3 move to another state and then return to the same location where the worse abuse happened, to
4 file a Restraining Order.

6 The law states that Mother should have filed a Restraining Order in the Court closest to 7 where Mother resides, that is exactly what Mother did. Mother did not do anything illegal or 8 commit misconduct by requesting an Order of Protection to protect herself, her family and the 9 Child from Father, who abused Mother and Child for years. There was a new incident of 10 Domestic Violence when Mother re-filed her Order of Protection applications. Mother is still 11 confused and concerned about how she is being accused of “Forum Shipping” besides that 12 Father’s attorney threw “Forum Shopping” out like a buzzword at the beginning of this case and 13 the accusation unfairly stuck. Mother does not stand a chance of defending herself or getting the 14 Court to listen to the truth when Father and his attorney are literally making up stories and 15 submitting fraudulent evidence to this Court as they go.

18 IF FATHER HAD STOPPED COMMITTING ACTS OF ABUSE, MOTHER WOULD 19 NOT HAVE NEEDED TO REQUEST MULTIPLE DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
20 RESTRAINING ORDERS AGAINST FATHER. FATHER OMITTS THE FACT THAT 21 MOTHER NEEDED TO APPLY FOR THOSE DOMESTIC VIOLENCE RESTRAINING
22 ORDERS IN ATTEMPT TO KEEP HERSELF AND THE CHILD SAFE FROM
24

25 Mother should not have had to file ONE DVRO, she certainly did not want to or intend to 26 have the need to file multiple DVRO’s. Mother was naïve to think Father would stop abusing 27

1 Mother and Child from a State away. Not even a considerable amount of distance stopped Father
2 from continuing his abusive behavior towards Mother and Child.

3 THIS COURT SHOULD BE CONCERNED FOR THE SAFETY OF THE MOTHER
4 AND CHILD DUE TO FATHER'S CONTINUED ABUSIVE CONDUCT.

6 Father misled the Court regarding Mother and Child's needs for lawful protection against 7 Father, resulting in Mother and Child being punished for exercising their Constitutional Rights to 8 equal protection from abuse.

9 Mother and Child desperately need protection from Father. Mother is asking for this 10 Court to issue orders to keep Mother and the Child safe. This Court should be able to see from 11 this Motion that Father goes to any lengths to continue his abuse. Father labeling Mother as a
12 liar, claiming Mother lied about significant Domestic Violence when Father knew Mothers
13 accusations to be true is beyond concerning and should be illegal.
14

15 The Temporary Orders in this case have emboldened Father which is further endangering 16 Mother and Child. Mother and Child are in more danger from Father than they have ever been.
17

18 Not only has Father committed extremely significant Domestic Violence and abuse but 19 Father has gone to extensive lengths to inappropriately and unfairly destroy Mothers credibility
20 so that Fathers acts of significant Domestic Violence and abuse are ignored and go unpunished.
21

22 Father has testified under oath in this Court and the Court in California that all internal 23 affairs complaints from his employer, The Mesa Police Department, were unfounded and closed.
24 Father told this unsolicited story without Mother or the Court asking about Father's Internal 25 Affairs Investigations.
26
27
28

1 Mother has an email from Internal Affairs at the Mesa Police Department which states
2 that the numerous investigations into Father's illegal conduct were consolidated into one
3 investigation, not completed. See Exhibit 40.

4 Father also states in his Response to Mothers request for a DVRO in Los Angeles, CA
5 that "As with all prior investigations by my employer, I learned that my department intends to 6 find me not at fault for allegations Petitioner has made against me." How would Father know
7 what his employer intends to do in the future? That is a very bold statement and insinuates that 8 the Mesa Police Department doesn't investigate allegations against their officers. How would 9 Father know what his department's intentions are in the future?
10

13 Father continues to claim that Mother's accusations of Domestic Violence cannot be 14 afforded weight or found credible. How does Mother have extensive evidence of Domestic 15 Violence if Domestic Violence and abuse didn't occur? Father blatantly refuses to acknowledge 16 the significant Domestic Violence and abuse Mother and Child suffered by the hands of Father.
17

18 Father lied excessively to damage Mother's credibility, which resulted in the Court
19 refusing to protect Mother and Child from future abuse. Its offensive Father claims Mothers
20 accusations of Domestic Violence cannot be found credible. If Mother's accusations are 21 unfounded, how does Mother have hundreds of photos of injuries, dozens of videos of Father
22 committing Domestic Violence and abuse, Police Reports describing the abuse including some 23 narratives of videos submitted to law enforcement, a District attorney statement for Domestic 24 Battery, Fathers own conflicting statements in every single Court, etc?
25

26 It is Fathers claims that cannot be found credible when Father tells a different story to 27 Law Enforcement and under oath to the Courts.
28

1 FATHER HAS SAID IN HIS FILINGS WITH EVERY COURT THAT MOTHER IS 2 FILING THE SAME EXACT, IDENTICAL ALLEGATIONS AGAINST FATHER WITH
3 EACH COURT. MOTHER’S CLAIMS ARE CONSISTENT REGARDLESS OF WHICH 4 COURT OR LAW ENFORCMENT AGENCY MOTHER IS SPEAKING TO BECAUSE
6 MOTHER’S CLAIMS ARE TRUE.

7 Throughout this case Father has identified with his title as a Law Enforcement Officer to 8 unfairly and inappropriately gain an automatic perceived amount of credibility and trust with this
9 Court. Father abused his title as a Police Officer when he continuously lied to multiple Courts
10 while under oath. Committing perjury is a direct contradiction of Father’s duties and oath he took 11 as a Police Officer. Due to Father being in Law Enforcement, he cannot claim ignorance as an 12 excuse for committing excessive perjury while purposefully using deceptive practices to mislead
13 Law Enforcement and multiple Courts.
14

15 This Court issued Temporary Orders in Fathers favor because of overwhelming
16 fraudulent evidence and testimony presented by Father in this case. Fathers misconduct also 17 resulted in this Court violating Mother and Child’s Constitutional Rights to be protected from 18 their abuser.

20 Father claimed that Mother was lying about being victims of Domestic Violence and 21 abuse when Father knew Mothers claims were true. That offense is considered sanctionable
23

24 Due to Fathers threats of violence and acts of abuse that have continued while this case is 25 actively litigated, Mother had to spend significant amounts of money to move and to implement 26 security measures for the safety of Mother and Child. Those are significant economic losses that 27 Mother should not be forced to pay for, when Father’s actions of misconduct are the cause.
28

1 Due to Father's misconduct in this case, Mother and Child have not been legally
2 protected from Father with a Court Order of Protection.

3 Furthermore, Father has abused the Temporary Orders that were issued in this case to 4 damage the integrity of several active criminal investigations with Father listed as the suspect.
5 Father has told investigators that Mother is lying about the Domestic Violence and Child Abuse
6 because the Family Court gave Father Custody of the Child and Mother supervised visitation,
7 therefore Mother's accusations of abuse were already found to be untrue by the Maricopa County
8 Superior Court.

10 Father obtaining the Temporary Orders in this case based on lying, deceitful
11 misrepresentations and fraudulent evidence have caused significant issues with the criminal 12 investigations against Father and has caused irreparable damage to Mother and Child.
13

14 Mother and Child will never see justice for what Father has done to them. Father
15 continues to stalk, harass, intimidate, threaten, and further abuse Mother and Child without 16 consequences. This Court is enabling Fathers continued abuse with the orders it makes.
17

19 MOTHER AND CHILD HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED AS VICTIMS OF ASSAULT, 20 CHILD ABUSE AND DISORDERLY CONDUCT WITH FATHER LISTED AS THE 21 SUSPECT. MOTHER WAS NOTIFIED PERSUANT TO A.R.S. 13-4055 OF MOTHER
22 AND CHILD'S RIGHTS AS VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND ABUSE.
23

25
26 THE VICTIMS OF FATHERS ABUSE HAVE A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO BE 27 TREATED WITH FAIRNESS, RESPECT AND DIGNITY AND TO BE FREE FROM 28

1 INTIMIDATION, HARASSMENT OR ABUSE. THOSE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS
2 OF MOTHER AND CHILD ARE BEING VIOLATED AS A RESULT OF FATHERS
3 SUCCESSFUL FRAUD UPON THE COURT.

5 In the interests of Justice, this Court should Vacate the Temporary Orders that were
6 issued because of Fathers unjustifiable conduct, criminal conduct, intentional misrepresentations,
7 calculated deceit, Perjury and fraud upon the Court.

8 Discovery of significant deception and dishonesty is grounds for the Temporary Order to 9 be vacated.
10

11 This case involves the safety of a minor Child and her Mother. Victims' safety should be 12 of primary importance to this Court. Under A.R.S. 25-403.03(B) "[t]he Court shall consider
13 evidence of Domestic Violence as being contrary to the best interests of the Child." "The Court
14 shall consider the safety and well-being of the Child and the victim of Domestic Violence to be 15 of primary importance." "The Court shall consider a perpetrator's history of causing or 16 threatening to cause physical harm to another person." The Domestic Violence evidence in this 17 motion alone demonstrates the Domestic Violence and abuse in this case was "significant."
18 Therefore, there is a rebuttable presumption that an award of sole or joint legal decision-making
19 to the parent who committed the acts of Domestic Violence is contrary to the Child's best 20 interests.

22 Father has manipulated this Court with his deceitful actions to continue abusing and 23 traumatizing Mother, the Parties Child and Mother's family.
24

25 Due to Fathers deceptive, illegal practices in this case, Mother requests the Court award
26 her attorney's fees under A.R.S. 25-324. Father's intentional deception, excessive 27 misrepresentations, bold lying and unnecessary emergency orders in this case are unreasonable.
28

1 Father has significantly more financial resources than Mother. Attorney's fees should be
2 awarded to Mother pursuant to A.R.S. 35-324 and A.R.S. 25-403.08, after considering the
3 relative financial resources of both parties, the Court may award attorney's fees and costs
4 incurred in maintaining or defending the proceedings. White-Nathan V Nathan, 181 Ariz. 112,
5 120 (App. 1994) Further, the primary intent of A.R.S. 25-324 is to assure a remedy for the party
6 with the least ability to pay. Gore V. Gore, 169 Ariz. 593, 595 (App. 1991). Furthermore, the 7 purpose for awarding attorney's fees during litigation is to ensure that the party with the least
8 resources has the ability to properly litigate issues before the Court. Edsall V. Superior Court,
9 143 Ariz. 240, 693 (1984) Mother is requesting Father be responsible for paying Mothers
10 attorney's fees, costs and expert witness fees to enable Mother to obtain adequate legal 11 representation and to prepare evidence for hearings. There is a significant disparity in income
12 between the parties, Mother clearly has the least ability to pay.

15 Moreover, A.R.S. 25-324(B) requires the Court to award attorney's fees if it finds the 16 parties' Petition was not grounded in fact. It's clear by the evidence presented in this motion that 17 Father's Petitions were not filed in good faith. Father's Petition was filed for the improper 18 purpose of continuing his acts of Domestic Violence and abuse.

20 The majority of Father's initial Petition and Motion for Temporary Orders were filled
21 with contradictory, fabricated stories meant to deceive the Court. Father's intentions with his 22 Paternity action were not genuinely about Fathers concerns for the Child or Father's relationship
23 with the Child. Father never cared about the Child when the Child and Mother lived with Father.
24 The only time Father had a relationship with the Child was when the parties were attending a
25 social function. Otherwise, Father has admitted in his own testimony with this Court that Father 26 never took care of the Child's daily needs.
27

1 Father's intention with the Paternity action was clearly to further abuse Mother. Father
2 doesn't care that him abusing Mother is harming the Child. Father filed this Domestic Relations
3 case after Mother disconnected all avenues for Father to continue his abuse of Mother and Child.
4 Father is now using Law Enforcement and the Courts to continue his abuse.

6 Mother and Child should not be further punished by the Court for Mother removing
7 herself and the Child from a dangerous, volatile, unhealthy, abusive situation. Mother and Child
8 starting over with nothing after Father kicked Mother and Child out of their home was already
9 challenging enough. Mother and Child do not deserve to continue being subjected to Fathers 10 violent, angry, drunken, abusive behaviors.
11

12 Father has demonstrated with his actions to the Courts that Father will never stop abusing
13 Mother and Child. Father has had no boundaries or self-control during this litigation. Father will 14 continue lying, intentionally misrepresenting "facts" and will use new tactics to deceive the 15 Court now that the Court has been made aware of Fathers past deceitful tactics.
16

17 Father not only committed YEARS of significant Domestic Violence and Child Abuse
18 but subsequently lied to THREE Courts and Law Enforcement about it.

19 Father used this Court to dishonestly accuse Mother of making false accusations of abuse
20 against him, when Father knew in fact that Mothers accusations of Father committing Domestic 21 Violence and Child abuse were true.
22

23 Father was so convincing with his never-ending perjury that he convinced this Court to 24 award him Sole Legal Decision-Making Authority, dangerously placing the Child in the hands of 25 their abuser.
26
28

1 No Child should be exposed to this extremely concerning behavior Father has
2 demonstrated throughout this case. Father has proved that he will go to any lengths to continue
3 his abuse, even while parties are in active litigation.

5 Father's abhorrent conduct outlined in this motion, along with years of abuse Mother and 6 Child suffered from Father is adequate proof that the Child is unsafe with Father.

7 Father's lacks accountability and remorse for the years of torture Mother and Child
8 suffered from Fathers violent, frightening behavior. The Court should be concerned that Father
9 does not recognize his extremely abusive behavior as abuse, Father is clearly in denial or 10 delusional.

12 Father has made no attempts to get himself treatment for his anger management, domestic 13 violence, substance abuse or excessive drinking issues because he doesn't care about the effect
14 his actions have on Mother or the Child.

15 Father has not been honest with Law Enforcement or any Court case the parties have 16 been involved in. Father has lied about so much that Father damaged his own credibility to the 17 point where Father cannot be trusted with anything he says.
18

19 Father has continued committing acts of abuse during this case without regard for how 20 his own actions affect the Child, demonstrating that both Mother and Child are not safe around 21 Father.

24 ORDERS TO PROTECT THEIR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS TO BE EQUALLY
25 PROTECTED FROM FURTHER ABUSE BY FATHER, INCLUDING LEGAL ABUSE.

26 Father manipulated multiple Courts of Law and Law Enforcement. Father should not be 27 permitted the opportunity to manipulate a young Child's mind. Father has put Mother, Child and 28

1 Mother's family through hell throughout the duration of this case. Father needs serious Mental
2 Health Intervention so that he does not continue traumatizing his victims. Father does not see his
3 abusive actions as the problem. Father only sees Mothers reactions to his actions. Father abusing,
4 stalking, harassing and threatening Mother is not consistent with the Child's Best Interests.
5 Father does not see how his actions affect the Child, nor does Father care. If Father cared, he 6 would stop.

8 There is a significant history of Domestic Violence in this matter. Mother should be
9 awarded sole legal decision making and designated as the Child's primary residential parent.
10 "[J]oint legal decision-making shall not be awarded if the Court makes a finding of the existence
11 of domestic violence pursuant to section 13-3601 or if the Court finds by a preponderance of the 12 evidence that there has been a significant history of domestic violence." A.R.S. 25-403.03(A)
13 (emphasis added); see also DeLuna v. Petitto, 247 Ariz. 420,423 Paragraph 11 (App. 2019). In 14 order to determine whether Domestic Violence has been "significant," Arizona Courts have often 15 considered three factors, including: (1) the seriousness of the particular incident of Domestic 16 Violence, (2) the frequency or pervasiveness of the domestic violence, and (3) the passage of 17 time and its impact. Deluna, 247 Ariz. At 424 Paragraph 15 n.6.

19 Furthermore, notwithstanding the foregoing, "[I]f the Court determines that a parent ...
20 has committed an act of domestic violence against the other parent, there is a rebuttable
21 presumption that an award of sole or joint legal decision-making to the parent who committed
22 the act of domestic violence is contrary to the child's best interests." A.R.S. 25-403.03(D)
23

24 Evidence of Domestic Violence is contrary to the Child's best interest. A.R.S. 25-
25 403.03(B). Furthermore, courts are directed to consider the safety and well-being of the child and 26 the victim of domestic violence of primary importance. A.R.S. 25-403.03(B) (emphasis added)
27

1 In addition, where there is domestic violence, there is a rebuttable presumption against the
2 perpetrator that parenting time will endanger the child and/or significantly impair the child's
3 emotional development. A.R.S. 25-403.03(F)

6 Father intentionally omits the significant misrepresentations and contradictions he has
7 claimed in other Courts from this Court. Father only files documents from the California cases
8 with the Maricopa County Court that benefit Father. Father intentionally omitting his 9 contradictory, dishonest statements in his declarations from other Courts, demonstrates Father's 10 knowledge and deliberate intent to defraud each Court.
11

12 13 Relief Requested

- 14 • Mother Respectfully requests this Court Vacate the Temporary Orders this Court
15 entered on February 14, 2023.
- 16 • Mother Respectfully requesting this Court immediately grant Mother Sole Legal 17 Decision-Making authority for the parties' minor Child.
- 18 • Mother Respectfully requests the Court suspend any Parenting Time between 19 Father and Child until Father completes a significant amount of Mental Health
20 Treatment, Substance Abuse Treatment, Domestic Violence Batterer's
21 Intervention treatment program and any other treatment this Court deems 22 necessary.
- 23 • Mother Respectfully requests this Court issue an order protecting Mother and 24 Child from Future abuse by the hands of Father, including legal abuse. Mother is 25 respectfully requesting a no contact order prohibiting Father from Contacting 26
28

1 Mother or Child until Father can obtain the Mental health and substance abuse
2 treatment that Father desperately needs.

- 3 • Mother Respectfully requests this Court limit Father's ability to file Emergency or 4 ex-parte motions without substantial evidence of a Verified, Legitimate
5 Emergency. "State judges, as well as federal, have the responsibility to respect
6 and protect persons from violation of federal constitutional rights." Goss V. State
7 of Illinois, 312 F.2d 257, 259 (7th Cit. 1963)
- 9 • Mother Respectfully requests this Court order Father to pay Mothers attorney's 10 fees for her previous attorney on this case.
11
- 12 • Mother Respectfully requests this Court order Father to pay for Mothers future
13 attorney's fees, Court Costs and expert witness fees due to Father's abhorrent
14 conduct and unreasonable position Father has taken in this case.
15
- 16 • Mother Respectfully requests this Court order Father to pay Mothers moving
17 expenses and security costs due to Fathers acts of abuse causing Mother and Child 18 to move and obtain security to protect themselves.
19

21

- 22 1.) A.R.S. 25-415(A)(1) Father knowingly presented false claims under section A.R.S.
23 25-403 and A.R.S. 25-403.03. with knowledge that the claim was false.
- 24 2.) A.R.S. 25-405(A)(2) Father knowingly accused Mother of making false claims
25 regarding Fathers Domestic Violence and Child abuse with knowledge that Mothers
27

1 3.) A.R.S. 25-405(B)(1) Impose additional financial sanctions on behalf of Mother who
2 can demonstrate economic loss directly attributable to Father's misconduct. Mother
3 and Child were forced to move and obtain security to protect themselves from Fathers
4 ongoing, escalating acts of abuse.

6 4.) A.R.S. 25-405(B)(3) Immediately modify legal decision-making and Parenting Time
7 because that modification supports the best interests of the Child. Fathers conduct
8 outlined in this motion is not in the Best Interests of the Child. The Child should 9 remain with Mother where the Child is safe until Father can overcome the rebuttable
10 presumption against placing a Child in the care of their abuser.
11

12 5.) A.R.S. 25-405(D) The Court may award costs, attorneys fees or impose other
13 sanctions if authorized elsewhere in State or Federal law.
14

16 circumstances.

EXHIBIT 1

1 conformity to that practice and usage of common law. Here, Mother has failed, refused,
2 or neglected to return the minor child to Arizona.

3 25. Due to his concerns that Mother would flee the State of California upon
4 receipt of the Court's Temporary Order, Father traveled to California with Paternal
5 Grandfather (Gary Freeman) to facilitate the exchange of the minor child through a Civil 6 Standby with the Murrieta Police Department.

7 February 14, 2023 (evening): Paternal Grandfather and Murrieta PD
8 attempt to retrieve the minor child from Mother's current residence. Law
9 enforcement noted three vehicles parked outside the home. No one
10 answered the door. Incident Report No. MR23-045-122.

11 February 15, 2023 (morning): Paternal Grandfather and Murrieta PD
12 attempt to retrieve the minor child from Mother's current residence. Law
13 enforcement noted two vehicles parked outside the home. No one
14 answered the door. Incident Report No. MR23-045-143.

15 February 15, 2023 (afternoon/early evening): Paternal Grandfather and 16 Murrieta PD attempt to retrieve the minor child from Mother's current 17 residence. Law enforcement noted three vehicles parked outside the home
18 and heard noises coming from within the residence. No one answered the 19 door.

20 The attempted exchanges will be documented in MR23-0786.

21 26. On February 15, 2023, undersigned counsel emailed Mother a copy of the 22 Court's Temporary Order and requested that Mother bring the minor child to the Murrieta
23 Police Station on February 16, 2023, between 11:00 a.m. and 12:00 p.m. to effectuate
24 the exchange. See Exhibit B. Mother did not respond to undersigned counsel's email or 25 exchange the minor child as requested. Mother's failure to appear will be documented in MR23-047-079. Mother's contumacious behavior must be curbed. It is clear that Mother will continue to withhold the minor child from Father, violate this Court's orders and act contrary to the minor child's best interests.

Application for Warrant to Take Physical Custody of the Child

EXHIBIT 2

1 30. On September 13, 2022, I filed a Motion for Temporary Orders Regarding Legal Decision
2 Making, Parenting Time, and Child Support with the Superior Court of Arizona. Respondent was 3 made aware of the action in Arizona on or about September 13, 2022.

4 31. On January 24, 2023, the AZ Court conducted an evidentiary hearing. Petitioner fully 5 participated.

6 32. On February 14, 2023, the Superior Court of Arizona, County of Maricopa filed
7 Temporary Orders. The AZ court awarded me sole legal and physical custody of Brooklyn
8 with supervised visits of up to four hours one time per week. The Arizona Court found that 9 "the parenting time of Erin Gerlach must be supervised to protect the child's physical,
10 mental or emotional health." Exhibit 3, Page 4.

11 33. On February 15, 2023, I contacted the local police department in the City of Murrieta, 12 California (where Petitioner had indicated she was staying in her TRO filings since taking our 13 daughter to California) and provided them the Temporary Orders from Arizona in hopes of 14 retrieving our daughter. The police made multiple attempts to retrieve our daughter from 15 Petitioner's residence in Murrieta, California. This is the last known address for Petitioner
16 since she left with our daughter from Arizona in August of 2022. The police department
17 informed me that there was no answer at the door during their attempts to make contact.

18 34. To ensure the safe return of our daughter given the Petitioner's evasion of law
19 enforcement, my AZ counsel immediately filed a Request for a Warrant to be issued with the 20 Superior Court of Arizona, County of Maricopa to ensure the return of our daughter to me.

21 35. On February 17, 2023, the AZ Court issued a Warrant to take Physical Custody of 22 Child. Exhibit 1.

NARRATIVE:

During Erin's report she recalled various incidents that took place over the length of their relationship. All photos, videos, emails and recordings have been uploaded onto DigitalEvidenceOnQ.

She never reported any incidents in the past because [REDACTED] threatened her and intimidated her in various ways including explaining that he knew how to hide dead bodies. She also had a mistrust of Law Enforcement considering [REDACTED] profession and assumed he would be protected. She explained that [REDACTED] had previously been reported to his agency at Mesa PD and may have been under multiple IAs involving previous girlfriends and domestic violence.

Erin emailed multiple videos of her and [REDACTED] locked in the bathroom hiding from [REDACTED] Erin hid repeatedly in bathrooms from [REDACTED] with [REDACTED] because she was afraid of him and his unpredictability. These included:

A video from 4/19, captures [REDACTED] yelling and Erin asking him to stop breaking things and saying she's tired of fearing for her safety.

A pair of videos from 7/14/19 where [REDACTED] was described to be drinking heavily and being disorderly within the home. [REDACTED] became upset and was crying and [REDACTED] stumbled towards her so Erin ran ahead of him to grab her. [REDACTED] tried to grab them so they hid in the bathroom. While in the bathroom, [REDACTED] threw Erin and [REDACTED] things on the floor in the garage. Photos are included of the garage.

One video from approximately 7/19, captures [REDACTED] yelling and breaking objects in the home while they hid.

Another video from 7/19, captures [REDACTED] yelling, "fucking kill me" and telling someone they are a "piece of shit human".

Another from 7/19, [REDACTED] and Erin yelling at each other through the door. Erin explained this incident involved her and [REDACTED] running from [REDACTED] after he tried smothering [REDACTED] because she was crying. [REDACTED] made statements including she should kill herself, "fuck you for ever coming into my life", and "fuck you for giving birth to her". She stated that they hid in the bathroom because the front door was blocked, the back door had multiple locks that prevented quick exit, and the garage door was blocked.

8/2/19 shows [REDACTED] calling someone a "crazy cunt".

Erin provided multiple photos of the physical abuse she sustained from [REDACTED] during their relationship. There are multiple photos of severe bruising to her arms, back, chest, legs and ribs. Erin also provided photos of her black eyes caused by [REDACTED] reportedly held a pillow over her face with his body weight. She was kicked out of the house that night and slept in the parking lot of a hospital. Erin said she slept in a hospital parking lot more than once in case she absolutely needed medical attention. She was afraid to seek aid because of fear of getting [REDACTED] in trouble.

Erin described an incident from Easter on 4/21/19 where [REDACTED] became upset over [REDACTED] spilling finger paint while she was preparing things for Easter. [REDACTED] dragged her by the arm from the bedroom to the living room and slammed her down on the floor. [REDACTED] then grabbed her by the ponytail and dragged her through the spilled paint. [REDACTED] was in the room while [REDACTED] dragged her around. Erin provided photos of the paint on her body and bruising on her arms.

On 9/3/19, Erin and [REDACTED] were in a disagreement and [REDACTED] grabbed her by the hair while she was holding [REDACTED]. Erin ended up dropping [REDACTED] causing Erin to scream at him to stay away. Erin shared a video showing [REDACTED] walking towards her while holding [REDACTED] while she repeatedly asks him to stay away until she gets outside. [REDACTED] puts his hands behind his back but continues to walk towards them. After this, Erin took [REDACTED] to California to get away for a while.

On 4/7/20, [REDACTED] came home from golfing and drinking. He threw [REDACTED] toys across the room and was confrontational with Erin while she held [REDACTED]. Erin threatened to call 911 if he continued and provided a video showing [REDACTED] daring her to call 911.

On 4/14/20, [REDACTED] broke a plastic cutting board by slamming it on the kitchen counter because Erin would not press garlic for a cooking recipe. She explained that he would use intimidation tactics like this repeatedly. On this particular occasion [REDACTED] was said to have immediately calmed down after realizing he was being filmed.

She recalled a specific incident around Father's Day in 2021 where [REDACTED] had become too rough and choked her while she performed oral sex on him. She said that she repeatedly tried to pull away from him and he would force her mouth on his penis. [REDACTED] was in the room while this occurred. She provided photos of bleeding and bruising inside of her mouth.

Erin explained that [REDACTED] was frequently a victim of [REDACTED] behavior and would be hit by things that [REDACTED] would break or he would directly throw at

EXHIBIT 7

them. She described the following incidents:

On 8/11/19, [REDACTED] threw a sausage at them and she provided photos of mustard and food covering [REDACTED] chest and face. This incident began because [REDACTED] felt that Erin was whining when explaining that [REDACTED] was not feeling well. She also provided photos of [REDACTED] giving her the middle finger and appearing to be very angry.

On 9/10/19, Erin said [REDACTED] got frustrated with [REDACTED] and spanked her so hard that there were red marks across her buttocks. [REDACTED] was wearing a diaper when she was hit and the marks remained some time later. Erin provided photos.

From 2020, Erin provided photos of [REDACTED] after being hit by objects [REDACTED] threw at her. In the photos you can see [REDACTED] to have a swollen and bloody lip and redness and blood coming from her nose.

Erin provided photos from 2020 that show damage to the walls and an interior door from [REDACTED] repeated slamming of the door. The photos show holes that appear to be from the door handle hitting the wall.

The reason this information has come up is because she is in the process of getting a permanent restraining order against [REDACTED] and has only been able to get temporary Orders of Protection so far. She also attempted to move on from the past and get away to California where she has seen [REDACTED] driving by her parents home. She does not feel like she can just get away and move on at this point without legal help.

Narrative:

On 08/24/22 at approximately 1634 hours, Shawn Freeman contacted the Gilbert Police Department to report an incident of harassment with his ex girlfriend named Erin Pondo.

I contacted Shawn by phone. Shawn informed me his relationship with his girlfriend Erin Pondo recently ended and Erin moved to California with their child in common. The two of them were never married but lived together at his listed address in Gilbert, Arizona. He advised he has been in communications with her via email and text message. He advised Erin possibly suffers from mental illness. Shawn was recently involved in a serious incident at his place of employment and he informed her about the incident. He advised he was planning on visiting Erin and their daughter in California when she became confrontational over text message. In the messages she threatened to have his career ruined by posting videos she took of him during arguments on a "TikTok" social media account made in his name and displaying his photo. She sent him a screenshot image of the account featuring his photo and name. The account

"Handle" was "[REDACTED]". She advised she would post a new video every 12 hours. In the messages she advised she would follow all of his and coworkers so they would see the videos she posts of him.

I sent Shawn a citizen link to evidence.com where he uploaded images of the text messages she sent to him which include images of the fictitious social media account.

I attempted to locate the social media account on "TikTok" without success. I submitted a preservation request to "TikTok", through their online portal, to preserve all information related to this account.

1 for medical treatment on August 6, 2022 (specifically, brain surgery on August 16,
2 2022). Mother took the minor child with her with the understanding that the trip to
3 California was temporary in nature.

4 20. On August 8, 2022 Mother told Father she indeed to "start over" in 5 California with the parties' minor child. Father objected to Mother's plan to and insisted
6 that Mother return the minor child to Arizona.

7 22. Also on August 8, 2022, Mother sent Father a salacious message about 8 her sexual activities with her new, current significant other. Recently, Mother advised
9 Father of her upcoming marriage to her current significant other—less than eight (8)
10 weeks after the parties terminated their relationship. Over Labor Day Weekend, Mother
11 informed Father that the wedding was called off.

12 23. Prior to August 16, 2022, as Mother's first surgical procedure approached,
13 Mother told Father that she going to return to Arizona to look for homes and attend a 14 medical appointment in the Valley.

15 24. Prior to August 20, 2022, Father informed Mother of his intention to come
16 to California and visit the minor child. Initially, Mother did not object to Father's proposal.

17 25. On August 20, 2022, Mother permitted the minor child to call Father.
18 During the course of the call, Mother interrupted Father's telephonic access with the 19 minor child. Father disengaged from the high conflict situation and terminated the call.
20 Mother proceeded to repeatedly call. Father eventually answered Mother's call and 21 quickly identified she was exhibiting manic behavior. Father asked Mother to take a stop
22 repeatedly calling him and to take her medication in an effort to reduce the conflict.
23 Mother continued to talk over Father. Paternal Uncle attempted to intervene but was

1 unable to resolve the conflict. Mother alleged that the minor child was present and
2 overheard the argument and accused Father of scaring the child.

3 26. On August 21, 2022, while on duty, Father was in an officer involved
4 shooting (OIS). Father promptly disclosed the incident to Mother via text. However,
5 Father learned that Mother blocked his phone number, changed her number and
6 emailed Father regarding the OIS after learning about the incident. Mother informed
7 Father that if he traveled to California to see the minor child Mother would obtain and 8 serve Father with an Order of Protection.

9 27. On the morning of August 24, 2022, Mother begins repeatedly texting
10 Father. Mother informs Father that she is creating a fake instagram ("finsta") under 11 Father's name and will release video recordings of Father until she successfully ruins
12 Father's career and life. Father reported the incident to his employer (Mesa PD) and 13 filed a Police Report with Gilbert Police Department (Report No. 22-85233, identity theft
14 and harassment). Father obtained an Order of Protection against Mother on August 31, 15 2022 (see FC2022-005502).

16 28. On the evening of August 24, 2022, at 8:35 p.m. Mother texted Father the

DETAILS

On 12/29/19 at 0740 hours, while working uniform patrol, I was dispatched to 32891 Valentino Way, in the city of Temecula, county of Riverside; reference a domestic disturbance. The reporting party, Susan "Thompson" Warren, advised dispatch her daughter's juvenile's father was verbal, holding his two-year old daughter and was pulling her daughter's hair, Erin "Gerlach". The subject, Shawn Freeman, is a police officer in Arizona and dealing with mental health issues from high profile cases. Freeman had been visiting from Arizona but was asked to leave several times because he was acting strange.

At 0747 hours, Deputy Wambaugh and I arrived on scene and detained Freeman inside the residence in an upstairs bedroom. Freeman was very cooperative with us. I asked Freeman to step outside so we could speak, and he agreed, and this is a summary of his statement.

Erin Pondo and Freeman have been living together in Arizona for several years and have a two-year-old daughter together. Pondo and their daughter drove to CA to visit her family for Christmas and he flew in a few days later. They were planning on driving back to AZ together that morning when they began arguing because Freeman felt Pondo was going to want to stay in CA with their daughter.

Pondo has traveled to CA on numerous occasions to visit family and for medical appointments and Freeman has had no issues with it; however, he became concerned Pondo would try to keep their daughter in CA. Freeman had not felt welcome in Pondo's parent's home advising there had been tension and her family had been ganging up on him over the visit.

Freeman told Pondo he would drive himself and their daughter home to AZ and she could follow when she was ready. Freeman picked up their daughter and Pondo then choked him with both hands.

Freeman refused medical treatment and had no marks on his neck. Freeman advised he did not desired prosecution but had questions regarding child custody in CA when the parents were not married. Freeman was concerned he had no rights as a parent if they stayed in CA. Freeman advised Pondo's father was an attorney and was concerned they would keep his daughter from him.

I spoke to the Pondo's father, Winston Warren, in the living room of the residence and this is a summary of his statement.

Winston and his wife, Susan Winston, were woken up by Freeman and Pondo yelling at one another. Warren and Susan opened their bedroom door and saw Pondo standing in the hallway while Freeman was

- 1 in their bedroom. Warren heard Freeman say your choking me, but Pondo was no where near Freeman.
2 Warren advised he did not see a physical altercation between them only heard yelling. Warren said there
3 was some hair pulling a few days prior but would not elaborate.
5 Deputy Wambuagh spoke to Pondo and Susan who both advised there was no physical altercation. Both
6 advised Pondo was in the hallway when Freeman made the statement Pondo was choking him. Both 7 advised Freeman was under a lot of pressure at work and were concerned about him.
9 I spoke to Freeman again and he was not a danger to himself or anyone else, was not intoxicated or under 10 the influence of a controlled substance. Freeman requested I transport him to a locale coffee shop to wait 11 for a ride to the airport.
12
13 Due to the lack of physical evidence, conflicting statements, and no desire for prosecution this report is for 14 documentation purposes only.

1 Temecula, California and that I had been drinking an entire bottle of Scotch by myself for the 2 past two days. This is not true. Ms. Gerlach states I grabbed her by the hair because I was
3 irritable and hungover. This is also not true.

4 On December 29, 2019, Ms. Gerlach, myself and our daughter were at her parents' house
5 visiting for the holiday. Ms. Gerlach had driven to California with our daughter and I flew in to 6 meet them a few days later. We were planning to drive back to Arizona together however Ms.
7 Gerlach and I got into an argument because Ms. Gerlach was trying to stay in California with our 8 child. When the argument started, I was inside the house holding our daughter in my arms. Ms.
9 Gerlach was yelling at me and began choking me while I was holding our daughter. At this point,
10 I asked Ms. Gerlach's mother to contact the police. The police arrived. I was escorted outside.
11 Ms. Gerlach remained inside of the house. I explained to the police that Ms. Gerlach had 12 attacked me and choked me. There were visible red marks and scratches on my neck. The 13 officer inspected my neck and took photographs of the red marks and scratches on my neck. The 14 officer then proceeded to go into the house and interview Ms. Gerlach and others. The police
15 officer came back outside and asked me if I wanted to assist with prosecution of Ms. Gerlach.
16 I declined. The police officer then asked me if I wanted to take my daughter with me. I
17 explained that I did want to take her but that I could not because I did not have a car seat for her.
18 I agreed to leave our child with Ms. Gerlach. The police officer then drove me to a coffee shop
19 and I got an uber to go to San Diego and fly home. Ms. Gerlach came home with our daughter 20 a few days later.

21 Ms. Gerlach states that on July 28, 2022, our daughter interrupted me while I was playing 22 Call of Duty on the iPad and that because of this, I told Ms. Gerlach to get out of the way and 23 that I was going to punish our daughter by beating her because she needed it. This is not true.
24 Ms. Gerlach states that I dragged her by the hair because she was not listening to me. This is not 25 true.

26 On July 29, 2022, I broke off my relationship with Ms. Gerlach. This is what I believe led 27 to Ms. Gerlach taking our daughter to California. In an attempt to stay in California, Ms. Gerlach
28 filed multiple Domestic Violence filings.

EXHIBIT 22

1 29. Following the birth of the parties' daughter, Mother began suffering from a
2 myriad of medical issues (physically and mentally) that typically manifested in Mother
3 becoming violent and either assaulting Father or destroying property.

- 4 a. In April 2018, Mother threatened to take the parties' daughter to 5 California and deprive Father of ever seeing her again.
- 6 b. Following the birth of the child, Mother threatened to abandon the 7 child or made non-specific suicidal ideations.
- 8 c. September 2018, Mother gives birth to stillborn child. Mother was 9 hospitalized. Once discharged, Mother experienced significant
10 challenges and became easily enraged. During the fits of rage, 11 Mother would throw and break personal property without discretion or 12 concern.
- 13 d. Thanksgiving 2018 Mother continued to be unable to manage her 14 emotions and targeted the parties infant daughter. Following the 15 incident, Father pushed for Mother to seek medical intervention.
- 16 e. Between December 2018 through December 2019, Mother continues 17 to threaten to leave Arizona and take the child.
- 18 f. August 2019, Mother strikes Father across the face.
- 19 g. While over the Christmas holiday in California, Mother began 20 strangling Father while he was holding the minor child. Mother's 21 family intervened and called enforcement (Riverside Police 22 Department). Father left mid-holiday and obtained an Order of 23 Protection (J1109PO201900297) against Mother. The parties
24 eventually reconciled once Mother and the child returned from 25 California and the protective order was not served.
- h. Between January 2020 and July 2022 Mother's erratic and violent behavior continued. Mother continues to threaten to runaway with the child, to abandon the child and to make suicidal ideations.
- i. In April 2020, Mother is diagnosed with Sheehan Syndrome but treatment and oversight is interrupted and delayed by the COVID19 pandemic.
- j. July 2022, Mother is diagnosed with a tumor on her pituitary gland

EXHIBIT 23

in the home while they hid.

Another video from 7/19, captures [REDACTED] yelling, "fucking kill me" and telling someone they are a "piece of shit human".

Another from 7/19, [REDACTED] and Erin yelling at each other through the door. Erin explained this incident involved her and [REDACTED] running from [REDACTED] after he tried smothering [REDACTED] because she was crying. [REDACTED] made statements including she should kill herself, "fuck you for ever coming into my life", and "fuck you for giving birth to her". She stated that they hid in the bathroom because the front door was blocked, the back door had multiple locks that prevented quick exit, and the garage door was blocked.

8/2/19 shows [REDACTED] calling someone a "crazy cunt".

Erin provided multiple photos of the physical abuse she sustained from [REDACTED] during their relationship. There are multiple photos of severe bruising to her arms, back, chest, legs and ribs. Erin also provided photos of her black eyes caused by [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] reportedly held a pillow over her face with his body weight. She was kicked out of the house that night and slept in the parking lot of a hospital. Erin said she slept in a hospital parking lot more than once in case she absolutely needed medical attention. She was afraid to seek aid because of fear of getting [REDACTED] in trouble.

Erin described an incident from Easter on 4/21/19 where [REDACTED] became upset over [REDACTED] spilling finger paint while she was preparing things for Easter. [REDACTED] dragged her by the arm from the bedroom to the living room and slammed her down on the floor. [REDACTED] then grabbed her by the ponytail and dragged her through the spilled paint. [REDACTED] was in the room while [REDACTED] dragged her around. Erin provided photos of the paint on her body and bruising on her arms.

On 9/3/19, Erin and [REDACTED] were in a disagreement and [REDACTED] grabbed her by the hair while she was holding [REDACTED]. Erin ended up dropping [REDACTED] causing Erin to scream at him to stay away. Erin shared a video showing [REDACTED] walking towards her while holding [REDACTED] while she repeatedly asks him to stay away until she gets outside. [REDACTED] puts his hands behind his back but continues to walk towards them. After this, Erin took [REDACTED] to California to get away for a while.

On 4/7/20, [REDACTED] came home from golfing and drinking. He threw [REDACTED] toys across the room and was confrontational with Erin while she held [REDACTED]. Erin threatened to call 911 if he continued and provided a video showing [REDACTED] daring her to call 911.

On 4/14/20, [REDACTED] broke a plastic cutting board by slamming it on the kitchen counter because Erin would not press garlic for a cooking recipe. She explained that he would use intimidation tactics like this repeatedly. On this particular occasion [REDACTED] was said to have immediately calmed down after realizing he was being filmed.

She recalled a specific incident around Father's Day in 2021 where [REDACTED] had become too rough and choked her while she performed oral sex on him. She said that she repeatedly tried to pull away from him and he would force her mouth on his penis. [REDACTED] was in the room while this occurred. She provided photos of bleeding and bruising inside of her mouth.

Erin explained that [REDACTED] was frequently a victim of [REDACTED] behavior and would be hit by things that [REDACTED] would break or he would directly throw at

EXHIBIT 24

1 30. Mother's chronic, erratic and violent behavior is contrary to the minor
2 child's best interests. Mother has exposed the minor child to repeated incidents of 3 domestic violence. Mother's reckless actions instigation of high conflict disagreements,
4 physically assaulting Father, damaging personal property and suicidal ideations places
5 the parties' minor child in serious and potentially imminent risk to becoming a victim of 6 domestic violence.

7 31. A.R.S. § 25-403.03 (B), entitled "Domestic Violence and Child Abuse"
8 requites this Court to consider evidence of domestic violence as contrast to the best
9 interests of the minor child. In Hurd v. Hurd, 223 Ariz. 48, 52, 213 P.3d. 683, 867 (App.
10 2009), the Court of Appeals affirmed the trial court's decision to award the mother sole
11 legal custody due in part to the minor child witnessing incidents of domestic violence
12 (committed by the father). Thus, a child's passive involvement, witnessing domestic 13 violence, is contrary to their best interest.

14 32. Father is deeply concerned about Mother's ability to make appropriate, 15 well-reasoned decisions that affect or involve the minor child. Mother's behavior has 16 worsened significantly and has culminated into Mother impermissibly withholding the 17 minor child from Father for the foreseeable future. Mother's physical health is requiring 18 surgical intervention and high level care. Mother's mental health status is unknown but 19 Father is concerned that Mother is not properly managing her mental health or 20 compliant with recommended treatment to manage the same.

21 33. Father is a fit and proper parent to be awarded sole legal decision making
22 and sole physical custody with regard to the minor child. Father is a well-respected
23 member of the Mesa Police Department. In addition to serving on the elite SWAT unit,
24 Father also serves as instructor in several training areas.

(2) ☒ I do not agree to the orders requested. (Complete form DV-125, Response to Request for Child Custody and Visitation Orders, and attach it to this form.)

This is not a Court Order.

EXHIBIT 26

1 There are serious and legitimate concerns surrounding Mother's overall parental
2 fitness as well as her ability to provide care and supervision for the minor child. Based 3 on information and belief, Maternal Grandmother and Maternal Step Grandfather are 4 caring for the minor child. This is inappropriate. If Mother is unable to care for the child
5 then child should be placed in Father's care.

6 34. Mother is wholly unable to co-parent. Mother's refusal to allow Father to 7 see or speak to the child is both legally unsupportable and unreasonable. Mother, by 8 her own admission, is unable to care for the parties' minor child. Due to Mother's 9 threatening, violent and abusive behavior towards Father there is a presumption against 10 awarding joint legal decision making. A.R.S. § 25-403.03(D).

11 35. Mother should be ordered to complete parenting classes, domestic 12 violence classes, and anger management classes. Likewise, Mother should submit to a 13 comprehensive psychological evaluation to determine what legal decision making and 14 parenting time orders are in the minor child's best interest.

15 36. Mother's parenting time should be suspended pending assessment of her 16 fitness and ability to appropriately care and provide for the minor child. In the 17 alternative, Mother's parenting time should be supervised at her sole expense, in 18 Arizona.

19 WHEREFORE, Petitioner/Father requests that the Court enter an order for 20 Respondent/Mother to appear and show cause why the following relief should not be 21 granted:

22 1. That an Order of Paternity be entered establishing that Petitioner, SHAWN
23 T. FREEMAN, is the natural and biological father of the minor child BROOKLYN
24 JORDAN FREEMAN, born February 12, 2018.

EXHIBIT 27

1 best interests to award Mother either joint legal decision making or sole legal decision
2 making.

3 10. Mother's refusal to allow Father to see or speak to the child is both legally
4 unsupportable and unreasonable. Mother's reasons for withholding the child from 5 Father are unrelated to his parental fitness but are rather motivated by Mother's 6 overwhelming desire to hurt Father and ruin his life.

7 11. Mother, by her own admissions, is unable to care for the parties' minor
8 child. Mother's mental and physical health raise serious concerns about her ability to 9 properly care for the minor child and make decisions consistent with the child's best
10 interests.

11 12. Father has a well-bonded, loving and strong relationship with the minor
12 child. The minor child is likewise bonded with father's family and close friends. Father 13 has maintained a stable residence and the minor child has her own room and 14 necessities.

15 13. Father is a well-respected member of the Mesa Police Department. In 16 addition to serving on the elite SWAT unit, Father also serves as instructor in several 17 training areas.

18 14. The parties' minor child was scheduled to start preschool at the Gilbert
19 Arts Academy located in August 2022. Father purchased the school uniforms and each 20 party paid one month of tuition. On a whim, consistent with her erratic decision making, 21 Mother withdrew the minor child from the Gilbert Arts Academy and retained 100% of 22 the refunded tuition.

23 15. While Father is cognizant and appreciative of the value of a mother-
24 daughter relationship. Father harbors serious and legitimate concerns regarding

Case No. FC2022-094055

SHAWN T. FREEMAN,

Petitioner,

and

ERIN ANNA GERLACH (fka ERIN ANNA PONDO),

Respondent.

MOTION FOR ALTERNATIVE SERVICE

Expedited Ruling Requested

Assigned to the Hon. John Blanchard

Pursuant to Rule 41, Petitioner, SHAWN T. FREEMAN ("Father"), through counsel, respectfully motions this court to permit alternative service. Good cause exists to grant this motion, as briefly set forth below:

1. Father filed his Petition to Establish Paternity, Legal Decision-Making, Parenting Time, and Child Support on September 7, 2022. Father further filed a pre-decree Motion for Temporary Orders (docketed September 13, 2022).

2. The parties romantic relationship ended on July 29, 2022. Thereafter Mother traveled to California for medical treatment. Based on information and belief, Mother is residing with maternal grandparents at 35932 Wilcox Lane, Murrieta, California 92562 while undergoing and receiving medical treatment.

ATTACHMENT (Number): Describe Abuse, Item 6 to DV-100

(This Attachment may be used with any Judicial Council form.)

Attachment to Form DV-100, Item 6--A Different Incident of Abuse

Second Most Recent Incident:

Date of Abuse: 12/09/2019

Who was there? Brooklyn Freeman and video on my phone.

What happened just before the abuse started? The following event(s) occurred before the abuse started: Shawn's Dad went to work, Shawn and I started to prep dinner but while cooking Shawn had too much to drink

What did Shawn Tyler Freeman do to you?

Shawn Tyler Freeman did the following things to me: Shawn had too much to drink while we were at his Dad's house visiting. Shawn's Dad was at work. An argument happened when I asked for help with our daughter and Shawn told me to "get the fuck out." When I started trying to pack me and our daughter's stuff into my car to leave Shawn took my keys, blocked me from entering the bedroom where our belongings were, screamed in my face and shoved me (while I was holding our daughter) and broke my phone by stomping on it with his boots on.

What did Shawn Tyler Freeman say to you?

Shawn Tyler Freeman said to me: I asked Shawn for help with our daughter so I could take a shower. But Shawn said it was his vacation and started yelling at me. While Shawn was yelling at me and told me to "get the fuck out." Shawn also said he was "beyond angry, uncontrollably angry" and had to get away from me. Shawn said it was my own fault I was being screamed at and he hit me, I forced him to do it.

Did Shawn Tyler Freeman send you any text messages, instant messages, email, or voicemail messages?

Did Shawn Tyler Freeman use a gun or other weapons OR threaten to use a gun or other weapons?

Were you injured? I suffered the following emotional or physical harm: Physical harm from being shoved and emotional harm from being screamed at. I was also told to leave but then Shawn took my keys so I couldn't leave and broke my phone, I was stuck.

Did Shawn Tyler Freeman damage your property?

Shawn Tyler Freeman damaged my property: Cell phone

Are there any photographs? Myself took photographs. The pictures show: Shawn yelled in my face, shoved me and you see my phone hitting the floor. The video cut off when Shawn stomped on my phone with his boots on. The pictures were taken: Same time as the incident occurred

VALUE

On the above indicated date and time I responded to 270 S Walnut in the city of San Dimas regarding a domestic violence call for service (Tag-124). Upon my arrival I contacted Erin Gerlach, hereby referred to as the victim, who stated the following:

On December 9, 2019 her and her boyfriend at the time, Shawn Freeman hereby referred to as the suspect, were at his parents house located at 1522 Albert Street in the city of Lancaster. The suspect had been drinking the whole day and became more aggressive as the day progressed. At approximately 2200 hours the victim stated that she wanted to leave because the suspect was very aggressive and it was scaring her and she didn't want her daughter, Brooklyn Freeman (DOB 02/12/2018), to be exposed to that environment. She informed the suspect she was going to leave, and the suspect yelled at her that she wasn't and shoved her with two open hands. As a result, the victim's momentum sent her backwards approximately three feet. To separate herself from the suspect the victim went into an office inside the residence and spent the rest of the night in there with her daughter. The suspect did not bother her anymore and passed out approximately an hour later. The next morning the victim, suspect and their daughter went back home to Arizona without incident.

I asked the victim if she suffered any injuries from being pushed and she stated no, she was just scared of him and the way he was acting towards her. She stated that there have been approximately 70 other domestic violence incidents involving the suspect that took place in Arizona and she would be filing police reports there. I asked if the suspect strangled her at any point and she stated no.

She showed me video footage of the incident and I observed the following:

The suspect is yelling at her and then he uses two hands to push the victim backwards. I was unable to see where the suspect pushed her and if his hands were open or closed.

I sent the victim a link to upload the video footage to LASD Evidence.com via my county issued phone.

I asked if she would like an emergency protective order against the suspect and she stated she currently has one and goes to court on 02/15/2023 to get a restraining order against the suspect. She also stated this is why she was reporting the incident three years later, her lawyer advised her to report also past incidents that had occurred.

The suspect and the victim share a daughter together. They have never been married but did live together for approximately three years but no longer live together.

I contacted Riverside County DCFS and spoke to Pamula Reed who provided me file number 0466-5919-7375-5050188.

The victim stated no firearms were used in the above incident.

The victim stated no drugs were used in the above incident, just alcohol.

A report memo, F.A.I.R pamphlet, EPO pamphlet and Vine pamphlet were issued.

Because this incident occurred in Lancaster Sheriff Station's RD, I suggest this be considered a courtesy report for Lancaster Sheriff Station.

My body worn camera was activated during the above incident. I did not review it prior to authoring this report.

Thank you. I have submitted multiple public records requests.

What does disposition "completed" mean? I've reached out to Arizona post with the same question.

Thank you

Good morning,

In this instance, it appeared multiple online entries were submitted by you to Internal Affairs and consolidated for investigative purposes. The "Completed" notification is merely an administrative function as Internal Affairs need to close out open submissions. To be clear, all information you submitted has been documented and is being investigated.

Regards,
